Counsel in Land Case at Superior Court Session Before Judge Pratt—Jury Waived Session

The case of Frank W. Coughlin vs. Lawrence C. Swain, an action of contract arising from civil business, was begun this morning in the superior court with District Attorney John J. Higgins representing the plaintiff and McIntire & Wilson appearing for the defendant. In the declaration plaintiff states that the defendant sold him a tract of undeveloped real estate in Wilmington, a copy of the deed of which was annexed to the declaration. Plaintiff states that he paid the defendant the sum of $2000 on account and delivered a mortgage on the land to secure payment of the balance of $6000 in three years at the rate of 6 per cent interest. It is claimed that the defendant represented the land as being the best in Wilmington, saying that it comprised 215 acres, only 10 of which were swamp land, while in reality, the plaintiff charges, there were only 204 acres and 104 of these were swamp land, unfit for small farms or house lots. The damage claimed is $12,000.

In answer to this declaration, defendant makes a general denial of the material allegations together with a plea concerning the law which he claims demands a contract in writing for such a transaction.

The first witness, and one who was on the stand through nearly the entire forenoon was a Mr. McKimley, put on by the plaintiff's counsel to be qualified as an expert on real estate. Replying to the opening series of questions, witness stated that he was born in Germany and received his education in a classical college in that country; afterwards studying civil engineering in one of the universities. He said that he has been engaged in construction or engineering work in South Africa and other places and that eight years ago he came to America. He said further that he has done considerable work for Mr. Coughlin, the plaintiff, and is familiar with the land in question, having done some work upon it.

By means of a chart, witness questioned by Mr. Higgins, pointed out the general character of the land, indicating the drainage ditches. He exhibited plans which he had gotten out with Mr. Coughlin for the drainage of the property. Part of it he valued at $25 per acre, approximately.

Witness was then cross examined by Mr. Wilson for the defense, who questioned him closely regarding the size, direction and particular location of the ditches which are said to drain the land.

Jury Waived Session
In the court without juries there was called the case of James H. McKinley vs. Peter R. Warren, an action of contract or tort, which was assigned to trial in this court by the court at Cambridge. Plaintiff claims in October, 1907, defendant told him that he could purchase 186 1-3 shares of stock in the P. R. Warren company for $10,000. De-

CITY AUDITOR IS "BIG GUN"

All Bills and Payrolls Must Be Approved by Him

Commissioner Brown Asks Attorney General for Opinion

In an opinion by City Solicitor Henry D. Paige, city auditor, having to do with an act relative to the approval of bills, the city auditor states that the language, "the auditor or officer having similar duties," can mean nothing but the city auditor, and that puts an end to the contention of Commissioner Brown.

The commissioner contended that that language "or officer having similar duties," included the commissioner of finance, but it would seem that the city auditor is really the "big gun."

The Auditor's Authority
The act says that the auditor shall approve all bills or payrolls of all departments before same are paid by the treasurer, and that means the bills and payrolls of the finance department as well as all other departments. The act provides that the auditor may disallow and refuse to approve for

O'KEEFE CASE IS WITHDRAWN

Man Started Fire in His House While Drunk

Young Man Arrested for Stealing Ride Was Fined in Court

With Judge Enright on the bench and George Tove, Esq., acting as temporary clerk, the local police court convened this morning at 10 o'clock with a small docket facing the court. The principal case of the morning, that of Officer O'Keefe, charged with falsely arresting John W. Stocks, was not prosecuted and the case was dismissed. Daniel J. Donahue, Esq., appeared for the prosecution and John W. McEvoy handled the case for the defendant.

Started Fire While Drunk
James McWilliams, arrested by Officers Dineen and Clark last night at his home on Marshall street, pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness in this morning's session. Both officers testified that defendant was fighting drunk last night. He had ordered his wife and small children out of the house when the two patrolmen appeared.

WOOD AND ATTEAUX AT STRIKE MEETING

Judge Chandler of the Lawrence Court Testifies—Heard Wood Say He Never Saw Dynamite

BOSTON, May 28.—Evidence relating to the labors of Frederick E. Atteaux in endeavoring to settle the Lawrence textile strike was given at the "dynamite" trial today together with that of Max Mitchell, a Boston banker, who appeared as a government witness. Through Mitchell's testimony District Attorney Pelletier sought further to support the prosecution's claim, that President William M. Wood of the American Woolen Co., Dennis J. Collins and Atteaux conspired with John J. Breen and Ernest W. Pitman to discredit the strikers by "planting" dynamite at Lawrence. Mitchell, who was formerly a social worker of this city, and who was active in trying to bring the Lawrence troubles to an end, told of numerous conferences arranged by Atteaux to bring representatives of the company and the strikers on one or another occasion, he said, Atteaux was able to restore peace at a meeting that was threatened with disruption. Atteaux, he said, shared his own views that the strike was the result of a misunderstanding and that a settlement could be arranged as soon as each side had a true realization of the other's position.

EXPECT OUTBREAK OF HOSTILITIES

Military Circles of Bulgaria Anticipate Clash Between Bulgaria and Servia

SOFIA, Bulgaria, May 28.—The military circles of the Bulgarian capital expect an almost immediate outbreak of hostilities between Bulgaria and Servia.

BULGARIA HAS ADDRESSED A NOTE TO EUROPEAN POWERS

RELATIVE TO SALONIKI
VIENNA, May 28.—Bulgaria has addressed a note to the European powers offering to submit to their direction the question of the future allocation of Saloniki, according to the Helmspost.

SEVERAL CLASHES OCCURRED BETWEEN GREEK AND BULGARIAN ARMIES AT SALONIKI

SALONIKI, May 28.—The most severe tension still exists between the Greek and Bulgarian armies facing each other some distance to the north of this city.

Several clashes occurred yesterday and today and the Greeks accuse the Bulgarians of assuming the aggressive in spite of the declaration made at the Bulgarian capital, that the Bulgarian troops have been ordered to observe a moderate attitude and to avoid conflicts with the Greeks. The Bulgarian commanders apparently are preparing to attack Eleftheria with a view to gaining complete occupation of the dominant position of Mount Panghion. They already have guns placed on the crests of the hills to the southeast of Prave, commanding Eleftheria. The Bulgarian troops also have occupied the heights commanding the village of Euphonia, to the south of Lake Doiran, and the town of the same name, which is occupied by the Greeks.

It is the belief of the Greek generals that the Bulgarians are systematically creating incidents and endeavoring to drive the Greeks toward the sea and seize the positions vacated by them.

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Mayor Requests Police to Turn Out

There will be new features in the Memorial day parade this year and they are features that will be appreciated by the veterans whose ranks grow thinner year by year. One of the features will be the presence in the parade of the daughters and granddaughters of veterans. They will ride in a large drawn by four horses and will have a position about midway of the procession. The daughters of Veterans will go in the barge with the Sons of Veterans to the Hildreth cemetery.

Another new feature will be the appearance of a goodly number of police officers in full dress uniform. The veterans have always had a police platoon to head the parade, but Mayor O'Donnell thought that greater respect should be shown the grand old men of the Grand Army of the Republic and he addressed a letter to the superintendent of police setting forth his wishes and asked the superintendent to read the communication at today's roll call.

The mayor's letter to the superintendent of police was as follows:

Redmond Welch, Superintendent of Police, City.
Dear Sir: On Friday afternoon of this week, Memorial day, the annual parade of the surviving members of the G. A. R. is to be held and on this occasion the different military and semi-military organizations of the city have volunteered to act as escorts to the veterans, thus assuring a large and attractive marching body. The veterans, as has been their custom for years, have asked for the usual police platoon to head the parade, but in consideration of the fact that the ranks of the G. A. R. are steadily being reduced, and but few are left to parade, I believe that the police department should join with the other organizations in doing honor to the old soldiers, and therefore, I would ask that as many members of the department as can do so, assemble at the police station in full dress uniform on Friday afternoon, in time to participate in the parade, and I desire that they make as large a showing as possible. I will kindly read this communication at today's roll call, and oblige.

Respectfully,
James E. O'Donnell,
Mayor and Commissioner of Public Safety.

HENRY A. CUFF DEAD

Popular Salesman Had Many Friends Here

Henry A. Cuff, aged 34 years, died early this morning. He leaves a father, Richard, one sister, Mary E., four brothers, Dr. Thomas F., John H. of this city, George K. of Arkansas and Fred C. of New Jersey. He resided at 15 Agawam street.

Mr. Cuff's death came quite unexpectedly. He was on a visit to friends at Pine Knoll camp in South Billerica and yesterday appeared in his usual health. Last night he did not sleep well and at 3:30 o'clock got up and went out for a short time. When he returned he complained of a chill and although everything possible was done for him, he soon became unconscious and passed away.

He worked for several years in the Sun office and was a bright, energetic boy and well liked by everybody. For some years he had been a traveling salesman for a drug firm and was quite successful. Of late years, he became very stout and this, it is believed, had something to do with the illness that resulted in his untimely death.

WITNESS IN LIBEL SUIT SAYS ROOSEVELT NEVER IMBIBED IN FLOWING BOWL

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 28.—Introduction of further testimony to show the abstemious habits of the plaintiff was resumed today in the libel suit of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newett, publisher of the Iron Ore of Ishpeming, Mich., who charged him with drunkenness. John Callan O'Loughlin, a Washington correspondent, was the first witness. The tenacious witness and principals engaged in the suit smilingly took up the thread of the case where it left off yesterday. Col. Roosevelt entered with George Shiras, his host here, and took his seat with a row of spectators inside the railing. His gaze turned upon the jury and then upon O'Loughlin as the latter was sworn. Mr. Newett came into court with his counsel. He is very ill but his ready compliance had him from all but those who knew him well. He sat looking straight in front of him and not at any one in particular, utterly emotionless as he has sat thus far in the proceedings.

Although Col. Roosevelt on returning from Europe after his African hunt was obliged to attend banquets and receptions tendered him by monarchs, he never indulged in champagne to an immoderate degree, was the testimony of O'Loughlin, who said he had been associated with Col. Roosevelt for 20 years. The witness said he met the former president on the Nile after the African hunt and accompanied him as far as Paris, acting as his secretary. O'Loughlin also accompanied the colonel on various campaign trips in this country. "During your 20 years' experience with Colonel Roosevelt have you ever seen him in the slightest degree under the influence of liquor?"

Never Saw Teddy Drunk
"I not only never saw him under the influence of liquor but it seems absolutely silly to me to have anyone suggest the fact that he ever was," replied Mr. O'Loughlin emphatically. "At banquets have you seen him drink any liquor?"

"At banquets he sometimes took a glass of white wine. I never saw him drink more than one glass of champagne."

O'Loughlin described the various dinners, official and otherwise, given at Washington, including dinners at the Gildred club.

"Will you tell this jury whether Mr. Roosevelt mixed his drinks or not?"

"If he took champagne he never took anything else."

"Regarding the custom of former presidents in regard to liquors at banquets, O'Loughlin said his first experience with presidents began with the second Cleveland administration and Col. Roosevelt followed the precedent of Presidents Cleveland and McKinley

LORD AVEBURY DIES AT 79

Succumbed to Heart Disease Today

LONDON, May 28.—Lord Avebury died today of heart disease after a short illness at the age of 79 years. Before his elevation to the peerage Lord Avebury was known as Sir John Lubbock, under which name he was probably the most popular man among the working people of the British Isles, for it was he who in 1871 as a member of parliament succeeded in having enacted the bank holidays act which added four national holidays every year to the statute book and these were for a long time known as Lubbock days. Some of Lord Avebury's works, especially on finance and education, have been translated into nearly all the languages of the world. Besides banking, on which he was a recognized authority, he also took great interest in history, on which he published many books. He was also one of the foremost men in the reform of municipal life and was at one time vice-president of the London county council. His great care for the welfare of the working classes was shown by his introduction of legislation to reserve open spaces from the builders so as to provide playgrounds for the children. He also devoted himself to the conditions under which clerks worked in stores and succeeded in passing a bill regulating their hours of labor. Another bill provided for the establishment of public libraries by municipalities.

MAY FESTIVAL

IN SACRED HEART SCHOOL HALL
TOMORROW EVENING

Children of Mary Sodality Will Present the Operetta "Sylvia"—Dancing to Follow

On tomorrow evening the children of Mary sodality of the Sacred Heart parish will conduct a May festival in the school hall on Moore street and elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment. The feature will be the presentation of the operetta "Sylvia." In the cast will appear talented members of the sodality who on former occasions have delighted many audiences. They will also be assisted by many artists from other sections of the city. During the past few weeks the company has held rehearsals and tonight the final practice performance will be held. Those to participate will meet this evening in the school hall and the finishing touches will be carried out. During the progress of the operetta many popular selections will be rendered. After the concert, dancing will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served. The entertainment will start at 8 o'clock.

RINGLING CIRCUS

Their Great Performance Now Begins
With an Elaborate Wordless Spectacle Here on June 11

Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Show is coming to Lowell on Wednesday, June 11. Their performance this season begins with an elaborate and costly spectacular production of "Joan of Arc" which employs in itself 1200 persons, 200 horses and a trainload of special scenery and stage properties. This spectacle cost the showmen $500,000. It is an attraction that should draw immense crowds to the city on show day, for nothing like it has ever been seen in this country.

The Ringling circus is thirty years old this season. The first performance was given in Barraboo, Wisconsin, on April 5, 1882. The tent was made of lumber. The seats were placed on a lumber yard. The five brothers made all their ring "proper." They had but one horse. It was a very small beginning, but it was an earnest endeavor. Simple as it all seems it was enough to make them sufficient money to start out the following year with a bright little show. A few years later they made their first tour with a railroad show. From then on, in spite of bitter opposition of rival circuses, the five showmen forged ahead. It was not very long until their opponents found themselves on the defensive side of the game. The Ringlings had come to stay.

The rest of their history reads like a miracle. Beginning with nothing they have built up the greatest amusement enterprise in the history of the world. Their wonderful popularity and success can be traced principally to two things: They were "on the square" with the people, and they had the peculiar talents that achieve greatness. The name of Ringling is a guarantee of satisfaction. Their word is as safe as the figures on Uncle Sam's money.

In its new dress the circus this year presents an inspiring picture. The show grounds are a city of a thousand wonders. All the great talents of the world show itself in the performance. The foreign agents of the show engaged the company with but very few exceptions. Of the 250 performers there are not ten who were ever seen in America before this season. The brilliant new three-mile parade was built last winter in the foreign workshops of the circus at Stoke-on-Trent, England. It is a world's fair of wonders, fashioned from the fine craftsmen of the globe. Nearly 1200 people, 650 horses, four elephants and several hundred dogs, hounds, open cages, fairy castles and hand chariots appear in it. The new spectacle is a complete garden of wonders. There are more than 100 performers.

WHY GIRLS LEAVE SCHOOL

Title of Bulletin by Bureau of Education

WASHINGTON, May 28.—"Why girls leave school" is the title of a bulletin issued today by the United States Bureau of Education, based on an inquiry made by its experts into trade and labor conditions among girls in Worcester, Mass. The claim that children are forced to leave school to work because their parents need the money is repudiated by the officials of the bureau. They found that from one-half to three-fourths of the girls at work in the factories could have had further schooling if they had desired or if their parents had insisted upon it.

Various reasons were assigned by the girls for their refusal to attend school longer, according to the bureau.

Get your share of it from

Scott's Emulsion

It's a powerful remedy for them

Some said: "They did not like school"; others, "could not get along with the teacher and were not promoted," while many simply "wanted to go to work." Only 17 per cent of the girls questioned had finished the grammar schools, while most of them had left in the sixth and seventh grades.

"Conditions such as were found," says the bulletin, "emphasize the imperative need for special training of a practical sort for girls between the ages of 13 and 15. Not getting the kind of training they might have liked and would have profited by, they blindly joined the army of shifting, inefficient, discontented girls that go from one monotonous factory job to another."

CLEVELANDS HAVE GREAT BATTERY

IN FALKENBERG AND CARISCH

CLEVELAND, May 26.—"Lanky" Fred Falkenberg of the Naps is the pitching sensation of the American league this season. It is his fine work in the box that has helped put and keep the Cleveland team near the top of the race. Faulkenberg is not a youngster, but has seen many years in the big show. The long fellow always threatened to be a marvel, but never succeeded until this year. Early last season in the shakeup following Charlie Somers' purchase of the Toledo team as a Cleveland farm pitcher, Falkenberg was sent to the American association team. He had a great season in Toledo, perfecting the fadeaway ball, which has had much to do with Christy Mathewson's success. Falkenberg was called back to Cleveland when Manager Birmingham saw how good he was, and this season he has proved to be the star not only of the Cleveland team, but of the American league. He won his first eight games in masterly style. Some credit must be given to Catcher Carisch for Falkenberg's success. The Naps' young receiver has helped steady Lanky Fred many times when it appeared he would blow up. Carisch's work behind the bat this year has been the best seen here in some time. Manager Birmingham says Carisch is the equal of any backstop in the American league. Carisch and Falkenberg are now the leading battery of the Junior baseball organization.

4 SAVED FROM SCHOONER

The Chase Goes Down Off Boone Island

GLOUCESTER, May 28.—The two-masted coasting schooner Chase, from Rockland, Me., for Boston, was sunk about 5 yesterday morning about five miles off Boone Island and her crew of four, including one woman, escaped going down with her by a hair's breadth.

The ocean-going tugboat Watappa of Fall River was bound down the coast, having three ice-laden barges in tow. A dense fog prevailed at the time, obscuring all objects a short distance away. The Chase was bound up the coast light, Capt. James W. Thompson at the wheel and Seaman John Nelson of Rockport, Me., on watch forward. The tugboat was sighted, her whistle making her presence known. Capt. Thompson kept off astern and clearing two barges, thought the way clear, the fog cutting in the view of the sternmost. Before she could be discerned the Chase crashed into the large Bristol bow on. The impact of the blow tore away the lower part and headgear and ripped the bow planking badly, so much so that the water poured in rapidly.

NARROW ESCAPE

BOY FELL FROM SECOND STORY GALLERY

Lionel Gendron, Aged 7 Years, Was Victim of Accident—Able to Be Out and Around Today

Lionel Gendron, aged seven years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gendron of 205 Cheever street, narrowly escaped serious injury last night, when he fell from a gallery from the second story in the house occupied by his parents. Fortunately the boy sustained only a few scratches.

At about seven o'clock last night the little fellow was looking out of the window over the gallery of the second story, and dropped his cap below. In order to recover the cap the boy jumped out of the window on the roof of the gallery, and not being able to check himself, fell to the sidewalk below, a distance of about 20 feet.

Mr. Thibault, a neighbor, who happened along at the time, picked up the boy, who was unconscious, and carried him to his parents' home. Dr. George E. Calise was summoned and after a careful examination found that the boy was suffering from a stiff neck and a small bruise to the left leg. Today the little fellow is about as through nothing had happened.

PROMINENT SUFFRAGETTE

Woman Lawyer Lends Talents for Votes

NEW YORK, May 28.—One of the most prominent suffragists in the legal fraternity of the country is Mrs. Harriette M. Wood, who is a member of the law firm of which her husband is the other half. She entered the law largely with the desire to give her legal talent for the benefit of the suffrage cause. Among the newer element of the suffrage ranks she is most progressive and is planning to take an active part in the international suffragist congress at Budapest, Hungary, during the summer.

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS TWO CHILDREN RUN OVER

Senate Finance Sub-Committees Met Struck by Fire Auto in Somerville

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Members of the senate finance sub-committees met behind closed doors today and plunged into the mass of briefs and testimony relating to the Underwood tariff schedule, preparatory to making their report to the entire committee next week. Many items some senators have declared, probably will be changed.

While the sub-committees were at work Senator Smoot, chairman of the finance committee, sought counsel with Secretary Bryan and John Bassett Moore, counselor of the state, department regarding foreign protests against administrative features of the Underwood bill. The committee is considering eliminating the clause which would extend a 3 per cent tariff discount on imports in American owned or controlled ships. Many nations have protested that it is a violation of treaty rights.

BOSTON, May 28.—Marion Sweet, 7 years old, of Weymouth Landing, and her cousin, Frederick Skerry, aged 5, of 32 Cutter street, East Somerville, had a narrow escape from death last night when they were struck, knocked down and run over by Fire Chief Rich's automobile as they were standing at the corner of Cutter street and Broadway, Somerville, watching the fire apparatus on its way to an alarm.

Both children were rushed to the Somerville hospital, where it was found that while they were seriously injured their names were not placed on the dangerous list.

Hilbert Trial Near End
MANCHESTER, N. H., May 28.—The trial of Frank H. Hilbert, chairman of the Nashua police commission, who is charged with bribery, was practically completed yesterday and the case is expected to go to the jury today.

Cures Stubborn Eczema

"For several years I was greatly distressed with a spot of eczema on my elbow, it causing me untold annoyance and trouble. I tried all of the standard remedies and at one time feared it would be a life-long annoyance. I finally sent for a sample of your SULPHOLAC and after one or two applications, found very marked improvement. I purchased a jar, used it consistently, and in a very short time the spot had entirely disappeared. It is two years since the last application and there has been no recurrence. You have my permission to publish this, as I feel I'm doing a favor to others who are similarly affected." F. W. Herington, Passaic, N. J.

LAWYER GIBSON, HIS ALLEGED VICTIM, SCENE OF HIS NEW TRIAL, JUDGE AND LAWYERS

NEWBURGH, N. Y., May 28.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer accused of the murder of his client, Mrs. Rosa M. Szabo, in order to secure her little fortune of $10,000, faced his second trial for his life in the courthouse here with the assertion that this new evidence had been obtained. The time he would be acquitted. He was tried last fall at Goshen, N. Y., and the jury disagreed. The second trial bids fair to be even more sensational than the first because it was said that

WITH THE FRATERNITIES

Oberlin Defeats High-lands at Quoits

Court Merrimack, No. 11, F. of A. met last night in Grafton hall with chief ranger G. R. O'Neill in the chair. Delegates John McFadden, George R. O'Neill, R. Townsend, John W. Sharkey and Owen O'Neill, who attended the grand court convention last week, gave a very interesting account of the session. Their reports showed the grand court to be in a fine condition. At the convention several important amendments and resolutions were before the court and acted upon. Lowell was honored by the grand chief ranger, as in his appointments three delegates and three alternates of this city were appointed to attend the supreme convention to be held in Atlantic City. The delegates from this city will be: Dennis J. Murphy of Court General Dimon, James J. Gallagher and John W. Sharkey of Court Merrimack. The members of the court paid a solemn tribute to their late brother and treasurer, Dennis O'Brien, by standing in silence for a period of one minute.

Members are now looking forward to the grand court convention to be held in Boston in 1914.

Oberlin Lodge Won

The Oberlin lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., held a regular meeting in Odd Fellows temple last night, and the feature of the evening was a quoit game between the members of Oberlin lodge and the Highland Veritas lodge. Considerable routine business was transacted during the early part of the evening.

The quoit game was easily won by the Oberlin lodge, the score being 123 to 66. This is the fourth game the Oberlin lodge has won, they having defeated Central lodge twice and Highland lodge twice.

The individual scores were as follows:

Highland Veritas—H. C. Moore, 15; M. H. Sawyer, 16; I. H. McLean, 14; W. E. Beach, 10; B. W. Walker, 5; H. U. Jellison, 3.

Oberlin—C. W. Rosander, 24; I. O. Brooks, 14; George DesForges, 15; W. A. Porter, 15; Edw. DesForges, 21; W. B. Maynard, 25.

Daughters of St. George held their regular meeting in Odd Fellows temple last night with a large number of members present. The regular monthly business was transacted and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

WHITE HOUSE MINT PATCH

Object of Much Interest to Visitors

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The White House mint patch referred to by Col. Roosevelt in his testimony in the libel suit he is pressing at Marquette, Mich., promises to become as much an object of interest to capitol visitors as the Washington monument. Already four sets are asking the White House police to point out the bed that gave up its fragrant leaves for Col. Roosevelt's occasional naps. The bed, 15 by 4 feet, is situated in a lattice work used by the White House laundress to dry clothes. Although mint always has been within easy reach of the White House, the present patch was established by President McKinley. President Taft seldom used it although it furnished its part to many a refreshing nap "served" to Mrs. Taft's callers. President Wilson also uses it—for glistening spring lamb.

ANNUAL MILITARY MASS

Of O. M. I. Cadets at Immaculate Sunday

The annual military mass of the O. M. I. Cadets will be sung at the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and the young soldiers invite all their friends to attend the service. This is one of the most important duties that the organization performs, and elaborate preparations are being made under the direction of the chaplain, Rev. Denis A. Sullivan, O. M. I. In past years the church has been taxed to its capacity at the military services, and plans to accommodate a large number are being carried out for the exercises on Sunday. The church will be decorated for the occasion and a special musical program will be rendered.

The cadets will meet tonight, tomorrow and Friday evenings to complete arrangements for the special service.

SPED AWAY AFTER KILLING BOY

Touring Car Ran Down 7 Year Old Lad—Driver of Machine Did Not Stop

BOSTON, May 28.—While the police of Greater Boston are searching for the driver of a large black touring car, seven-year-old Louis Sobell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sobell of 25 Browning avenue, Dorchester, lies dead at the City hospital.

The child was run down by a motorist on Talbot avenue, near Browning, about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon and left dying in the roadway while the driver of the auto sped away toward Milton before anyone could read the license number.

The boy, unconscious, was carried to the office of Dr. Frederick C. Hemenon at 9 Standish street, near by. Examination showed that the child had been fatally injured.

A police ambulance with all haste carried the dying boy to City hospital. It was soon seen that there was not a chance for recovery. With his mother and father by his bedside, he died shortly before 10 o'clock.

The killing of the boy, say the Dorchester police, was most brutal. According to eye witnesses the automobile was traveling more than 30 miles an hour when it hit the boy, and no attempt was made by the chauffeur to stop. Instead he made off with all speed and without looking back to see what damage he had done.

FIRST LADY OF CANADA

Mrs. Harcourt's Position May be Raised

LONDON, MAY 28.—Mrs. Lewis Harcourt, niece of the late J. P. Morgan, may become a member of the

MRS. LEWIS HARCOURT

English nobility if her husband is appointed governor-general of Canada. There is a report that his name has been considered by the king in case the Duke of Connaught does not return to the dominion. Harcourt has long been friendly with King George. He is a popular member of the house of commons. Mrs. Harcourt's friends hope that her husband will get the place and that he will then be raised to the peerage.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

At Funeral of Auguste H. Jean Today

The remains of the late Auguste H. Jean, former overseer at the Lawrence Mfg. Co., were consigned to their last resting place this morning in the Catholic cemetery after imposing service at St. Joseph's church. The church in Lee street was literally filled with friends of deceased who wished to pay him a last tribute. There was a very large delegation of employees from the Lawrence hosiery, where deceased had been employed for nearly forty years, among them being the agent, Everett H. Walker, who yesterday gave orders to the overseers of the plant to allow everybody who wanted to attend the funeral to do so.

The funeral cortege left the home of deceased, 785 Moody street, and preceded by a barouche filled with beautiful flowers, gifts from the agent, superintendents, overseers and other employees of the Lawrence hosiery, wended its way to the church, where at 9 o'clock solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Armand Baron, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Joseph M. Blais, O. M. I., as sub-deacon.

The choir, under the direction of Telephore Malo, rendered Perreault's harmonized mass, the solos being sustained by Dr. George E. Caisse, J. E. Noll, Henri Wellbrenner, Jules Morissette and E. J. Larochelle. At the offertory Mr. Ernest J. Dupont sang "Inno Misso" and at the communion Homer L. P. Turcotte rendered Rosewig's "O Meritum Passionis." Mrs. Jo-

PIMPLES COVERED FACE AND FOREHEAD

Would Fester and Come to Head, Itching and Burning Intense. Scratched and Made Sores. Face Disfigured. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face Clear.

34 Cunningham St., Roxbury, Mass.—"I was bothered with pimples for more than two years. My face and forehead were covered with them. The pimples were red and would fester and come to a white head with matter. The itching and burning were so intense that I scratched and made sores all over my face and could not sleep from irritation. They would make my face sore, itchy and disfigured.

"I tried creams and all kinds of remedies with no effect. I washed my face with hot water and Cuticura Soap and put on Cuticura Ointment and let it stay on for five minutes. Then I washed it off with Cuticura Soap. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment my face was clear from pimples." (Signed) Samuel Metel, June 19, 1912.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampoos with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, afford a most effective and economical treatment. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

PROHIBIT SALE OF CURE

Official Says Friedmann's Vaccine Doesn't Cure

NEW YORK, May 28.—Dr. O'Connell, health officer of the port of New York, has put his official stamp of disapproval upon Friedmann's so-called "cure" for tuberculosis. He claims that the vaccine will not do what the German doctor claims it will, and he urges the prohibition of its sale and administration. The board of health took up the matter. Dr. Friedmann had the medical profession guessing with his alleged "cure," and his injections into patients in hospitals of this city and elsewhere were watched with keen interest not only by the medical profession but by tuberculosis patients the country over.

International Athletic Congress. NEW YORK, May 28.—The standardization of international athletics will be the object of an international athletic congress at Berlin in August and it is believed the recommendations of congress will have great weight with the International Olympic committee which meets in Berlin in June, 1914, to prepare the program for the meet of 1916.

INSTANT POSTUM

Is in thousands of homes where health is valued.

Former coffee users who have felt the pinch of indigestion, headache, heart disturbance, nervous irritation, etc., have written by the score, telling of remarkable benefits following the change from coffee to Instant Postum.

A level teaspoonful in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

"Thanks for the sample of Instant Postum sent me. I had been drinking coffee for a long time and thought it would be difficult to give it up, but I was mistaken.

"While I was drinking coffee I always felt exhausted and I weighed but 112 lbs. After using Instant Postum I soon recovered and now am as healthy as any person can be. I now weigh 120 lbs. and am steadily gaining in weight." Name given by Postum Co., Battle-Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms.
Regular (must be boiled).
Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water.

Both kinds are sold by grocers everywhere.

ADVANTAGE OF PUBLIC MARKET

As Conducted In Canada
Told by Ex-Senator
Hibbard

The Middle Man Completely Cut Out at Hamilton

Market at Toronto a Failure Because of Wrong Location

HON. JOSEPH H. HIBBARD

Former Senator Joseph H. Hibbard has returned from the annual convention of the American Federation of Musicians, which was held in Toronto, Ont., and the Lowell man brought back with him important information concerning the large and beautiful city of Toronto, especially on the public market question, which is the present topic of discussion in this city.

There is a public market in Toronto, but as far as Mr. Hibbard could learn, it is not a success for it is too far away from the centre of the city. For this reason, many prefer paying more for their goods to taking a trip to the public market. However, the municipal council, as well as the press, is agitating the question of establishing a new market about on the same principle as that at Hamilton, Ont.

Mr. Hibbard says it is an amusing spectacle to see the farmers carting their produce to the market. It often happens that after disposing of their produce the farmers will trade horses, harnesses and on many occasions carts are also exchanged.

Relative to the Hamilton public market, Mr. Hibbard gave the following statement:

From 6 o'clock till 9 the big market cars come into the central terminal station at Hamilton, from four to eight cars an hour, and each one loaded to the doors with farmers and their wives.

Found for the market with baskets and

A Comfortable and Happy Trip to California, in Good Company and at Very Small Cost

A trip to California with a select party in charge of a well informed conductor who goes all the way through and is paid for his ability to relieve you of care and make you "feel at home."

A wonderfully interesting trip, going through Colorado and Salt Lake City. A thousand wonders to see.

A wonderfully comfortable trip made in a Pullman Tourist Sleeping car. Clean as wax, and the price of all so small that most anybody can go.

Just call or write and let me tell you all about the Personally Conducted, low fare parties to California that have helped to make the "Burlington Route" service famous.

Alex Stocks, New England Passenger Agent, C. B. & Q. R. R., 264 Washington St., Boston.

bundles of produce. Many of the passenger cars have a large baggage and express compartment at one end, and this is loaded with produce. Other cars are devoted to express entirely, and the farmers ship marketable stuff on these, take a fast passenger car, and meet their goods when the express car arrives in the city.

No grocers or dealers approach the market-laden crowds who hurry direct to the market adjoining the city hall, and only a block away from the chief street corners of the city.

The market on market days is one of the sights of the city, and to see it in "full blast" is indeed interesting. Not only the market itself, but all the streets approaching the market square take on the market aspect. Along these streets are scores upon scores of wagons converted into stalls, and in the summer season night markets are in full swing. Everything is on sale, from home-made pickles to live calves, and from horse-drawn to solar. Hamilton boasts "the best market in Canada" and with good reason.

Without question the Hamilton market is the greatest in Canada, where the householder buys on an average 25 per cent. cheaper than in any other city of the Dominion. The average foodstuff offered for sale on an average Saturday last year is as follows: 1000 bushels potatoes, 100 carcasses of beef, 50 calves, 200 pounds of lamb, 6000 pounds of pork, 5000 pounds of butter, 1000 dozen eggs, three tons of vegetables. Farmers' price, 600.

If Lowell were to establish a public market in the center of the city, and conduct it on the same principles as that in Hamilton, I believe it would prove a very successful proposition alike for the producer and the consumer.

In the course of the interview Mr. Hibbard said he learned important facts concerning the city of Toronto and its municipality. The population of the Canadian city is nearly half a million. The city is one of the largest in the country, for the streets are all paved and not a sign of dirt or scrap of paper can be found on the hard pavement.

The municipal government is composed of a mayor and four commissioners, who form a board of controllers. At the present time they are all busily engaged in preparing the budget or appropriation which will be about $2,000,000. Of this amount $25,000 are grants made to the various city charities.

The following statement shows the revenue received by the city from the Toronto Railway company, since the company obtained the franchise or from 1891 to 1910. Mileage, $1,375,297.25; percentage, $1,258,161.52. Total, $2,633,458.81. Furthermore, in Toronto rebate tickets are sold to citizens at a rate of six for 25 cents, and during the hours of labor, seven for 25 cents.

There were formerly 150 first class liquor licenses granted in Toronto but recently 40 of them were lifted off. They are granted at a fee of $1600 and five per cent of the receipts of over $50 a day. The saloons are open every week day from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m., with the exception of Saturday when all run shops close at 7 p. m.

On Sunday business is practically at a standstill, for drug stores alone are open and only for one hour. In Toronto on Sunday a man cannot even purchase a cigar unless he is a bona fide guest at a hotel.

Mr. Hibbard was delighted with his trip to the great Canadian city and speaks highly of its inhabitants. He was accompanied by Charles A. Delaronde, secretary and treasurer of the local branch of the American Federation of Musicians.

WOOD AND ATTEAUX

Continued

To Conclude Evidence
BOSTON, May 28.—When the dynamite conspiracy trial was resumed in the superior court today lawyers for the prosecution were hopeful of being able to conclude the presentation of evidence by the close of the day's session. Judge Crosby, who is presiding, announced that he would extend the proceedings beyond the usual hour of adjournment if necessary to expedite matters.

As on the seven previous days of the trial the effort of the prosecution centered about an attempt to show that President William M. Wood of the American Woolen Co., Frederick E. Atteaux, a Boston dye manufacturer, and Dennis J. Collins, a Cambridge dog fancier, conspired with John J. Breen, a Lawrence undertaker, and Ernest W. Pitman, an Andover contractor, to prejudice public opinion against the mill operatives in the Lawrence textile strike in January, 1912, by hiding dynamite on premises occupied by the strikers.

Wood's "General Man" Called
Mr. Wood's "general man," Daniel Mahoney, and Charles Boiven, a chauffeur, were called by District Attorney Joseph Pelletier to tell more of what was done by the principals in the case before and after the conference at Wood's Andover home on the night of Jan. 19, 1912. In previous cross examinations of witnesses for the state the defense offered evidence that the conference was for the purpose primarily of passing upon a letter which Wood had addressed to the strikers and not, as the prosecution alleged, to furtherance of a plot to "plant" dynamite.

Mahoney said that Wood arrived at his Boston office early on the afternoon of Jan. 23. He was ill. Edwin F. Greene, treasurer of the Pacific mills of Lawrence, called at the house in the evening, and an hour or so later Wood, Greene and the witness left for Andover in the mill president's auto, which was driven by Boiven. Arriving at Wood's home, the party found Agents Lament, Shuttleworth and Boothby of the Washington and Ayer mills respectively, and James H. Bailey, Jr., who was in charge of the woolen company's end of the strike. Atteaux came later.

When the conference broke up all except Wood, Atteaux and Greene left. The three named then retired, occupying rooms on the second floor.

Mahoney remained in Wood's room throughout the night. The next morning Greene left the house alone. Soon afterwards Wood, Atteaux and Mahoney returned to Boston in their car.

MAJ. CROWLEY IS NOMINATED

For Postmaster of Lowell by President Wilson

Committeeman Coughlin Has Pull at Washington

Major Robert J. Crowley has been nominated by President Wilson for postmaster to succeed Joseph A. Legare, resigned.

The major's nomination went to the senate yesterday afternoon and it is expected that formal action will be taken within a few days. The appointment will go to the committee on post offices and post roads. It will then be referred to a sub-committee. The sub-committee will report back on the appointment to the general committee and the latter will then make its recommendations to the senate.

According to Senator Lodge, no particular opposition will be entered by republicans to the confirmation of any postmasters, and such opposition is to be expected only in cases where the republicans believe the nominees to be absolutely unqualified for the positions.

Coughlin's Power
The Washington correspondent to the Boston Herald, commenting on President Wilson's appointments, says: A cruel blow was delivered today to the Boston city democracy, or that portion of it which has been combating mercilessly the efforts of Dr. John W. Coughlin of Fall River, national committeeman, to displace postal fruit from the trees of federal patronage. President Wilson sent to the senate the nomination of George P. Cooke, to be postmaster at Milford.

That tells the story, for Dr. Coughlin had championed Mr. Cooke and Representative Curley and Murray and others had stood up for James Lally. It was true Lally weakened his cause by entering the lists, withdrawing and re-entering, but none the less issue was made against Dr. Coughlin and now Dr. Coughlin wins after the bitterest fight on patronage in Massachusetts since Woodrow Wilson became president.

Dr. Coughlin took it very much to heart that Boston city delegates fought him at Baltimore. He told people so in deep confidence and that he thought the Boston city democrats were not doing as they ought to do. Now he has his revenge.

President Wilson sent three other Massachusetts nominations to the senate. They were for postmasters, as follows: Lowell, Robert J. Crowley, where Joseph Legare has recently resigned; North Brookfield, John Howe; and East Bridgewater, Thomas E. Luddy.

The Lowell office is one of the largest in the state, after Boston, and from the standpoint of salaries paid postmasters very desirable.

SHOE MACHINE CASE RESUMED

Right of Company to Restrict Use of Machines Questioned

Petition of Bill of Particulars Filed by Government

BOSTON, May 25.—The right of the United Shoe Machinery Co. to restrict the use of its machines when only a part of the machine was patented, was questioned by the government at the resumption of the dissolution proceedings in the United States district court today. The question arose on a petition for a bill of particulars filed by the government, requesting the nature of its claim to restrict the use of its machines.

James A. Fowler, representing the government, said that the patents on sewing machines had long since expired. Whatever patents remained were on appliances or certain devices, which he said the government would contend were not essential to the operation of the machine and did not affect its efficiency.

Judge Brown, who resumed his place on the bench after being absent yesterday, stated that the government's contention on that point would raise an interminable controversy. Whether a patent on a certain appliance or device covered only a part of the machine or the whole was the source of practically all patent litigation and was too broad to be taken up in this case.

William Gregg, representing the government, said they would not go into any machine at all of whose parts were patented. Because of some improvement, he said, the defendant had claimed the right to restrict the use of the entire machine in its lease.

"That has been exactly our experience here," said Judge Putnam, "some man would come along with an improvement that would save half a cent in the manufacture of a pair of shoes and would shut out an honest manufacturer doing business."

The court, however, decided to consider the petition of the government as well as one from the defense, requesting the government to specify the threats and other unlawful practices on which the government relied.

"The government must have in mind," said Charles Choate, representing the defense, "certain specific cases of unfair practices to which the defense is entitled an opportunity to reply."

Judge Putnam stated that the time had expired for such requests but directed the filing of both petitions for bills of particulars.

Mr. Choate then resumed his cross-examination of Nelson Howard, the company's patent attorney, regarding the nature of the patents acquired in the purchase of 55 subsidiary companies.

MORE NEW BOILERS

Are Being Installed in the Power House of the Appleton Mills by Competent Men

Two new 400 horse power boilers are being installed in the power house of the Appleton Mills. The boilers were unloaded from the cars in Jackson Street yesterday and the job of removing them was watched by at least 200 people. For men who did not understand the work it would have been an impossible job, but the men who were handling the boilers understood the work and they handled them almost as readily as the trained handler of baggage handles a drummer's trunks. And it might be remarked in passing, that the installation of new boilers does not spell "tariff scare."

LOWELL TEXTILE SCHOOL BILLS

Aggregating $73,000 Have Been Signed by Governor Foss

Governor Foss has attached his signature to the two Lowell Textile school bills. One of the bills calls for $28,000 for maintenance up to June, 1912 and the other for $45,000 for maintenance up to June, 1914. The bills went to the governor on Saturday and the Lowell delegation have been anxious to know what he would do with them. His Excellency vetoed the bills last year and at least one Lowell member of the legislature thought the governor would neither sign nor veto the bills, but would allow them to become law by remaining five days in the executive chamber. Mr. Cummock visited the governor relative to the bills and his Excellency said he would gladly sign the bills for the Lowell school as he regarded it an important institution, fully efficient in every way and doing good work. He did not have such a good opinion of the other textile schools.

THE FISH AND GAME CLUB

New Association Held Second Meeting Last Night

New Members Were Elected and By-laws Adopted

The Lowell Fish and Game Association met last night in Odd Fellows building, Middlesex street, and passed upon by-laws formulated by the executive committee. It was the second meeting of the association and President Lucius A. Derby was in the chair.

The Lowell Fish and Game Association has given a great many people a great big surprise. When Mr. Holt, who is a member of the state league, first suggested the formation of an association in this city, quite a number of men whom he thought were interested in the three "F's," fish, feathers and fun, allowed that it would be pretty hard to get a "chance" together in Lowell as most of the Lowell gunners and anglers are lone hunters and fishermen. Mr. Holt, however, believed that the local lovers of woods and streams would take an active interest in an organization that would make for better hunting and fishing. That Mr. Holt had the right idea was evidenced at the first meeting of the society when 36 men passed their dollar bills over the plate and became members of the association. There was a good attendance at last night's meeting and about 30 new members were elected. The by-laws were gone over article by article and in some instances, section by section. This gave opportunity for the offering of suggestions and by the time all of the articles had been gone through with, the members present were well satisfied with the by-laws.

Mention was made of "age limit" and it seemed the consensus of opinion that the cradle and the grave would do all right for the age limit. The president said he had a boy 12 years old and he would like to have him become a member. "Pass over the dollar," said Secretary Wm. McCarthy, and Mr. Derby came across with the long green. Mr. Derby believes it is a good thing to interest boys in fishing and hunting and part of the education, he says, is the protection of the song birds. He thinks that a boy properly educated along this line will be of great assistance to the wardens. "They will carry on the good work," he said, "after we are dead and gone." Mr. Derby is a pretty good fisherman but he says he hasn't had anything on his twelve-year-old son.

One of the important matters discussed at last night's meeting had to do with the farmer's right to put up "trespassing" signs on brooks that had been stocked by the state. This seems to be a much mooted question among fishermen, and ex-Deputy Commissioner Harry Gonzales said he was unable to find out anything definite about it, even at the state house. President Derby said that the executive committee would not get busy and would go into the matter thoroughly before the next meeting. The meeting was productive of some discussion that was both interesting and instructive.

FOREST FIRES

Postoffice Department Instructs Rural Carriers to Report All Fires Detected Along Their Routes

The official Postal Guide for May calls the attention of postmasters and rural carriers to an order of the postoffice department that the carriers report to the proper authorities all forest fires detected along their routes. This order was issued at the request of the secretary of agriculture.

the country a sort of informal understanding has existed between national forest rangers and mail carriers with the idea of securing increased fire protection. The marked effectiveness of this co-operation was a strong argument in favor of its extension and official sanction and was in part responsible for the request of the secretary of agriculture which resulted in the order by the postoffice department.

The plan is for the carrier to report a fire to the nearest forest officer on his route or, if no officer lives on the route, to have him notified by some responsible citizen. State and national foresters are supplied with post road maps and with postal guides containing the addresses of the different postmasters. The postmasters, in turn, are supplied by the foresters with names, addresses and telephone call numbers of forest officers residing on or near the carriers' routes.

Co-operation between rural carriers and federal forest officers will take place in Florida, Arkansas, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. Cooperation with state officers is given in all the New England states, and in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, and California, all these states having established fire protective systems.

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

You Can Buy Tuxedo Everywhere

Convenient pouch, unlined with moisture-proof paper - 5c
Famous green tin, with gold lettering, curved to fit pocket - 10c

Tuxedo is the original granulated Burley Tobacco, and has been more widely imitated than any other high-grade tobacco in the world. Thousands of America's most famous men have found that smoking Tuxedo affords them complete relaxation, soothing comfort, and healthful enjoyment. And every man who tries Tuxedo will find the same desirable qualities in this pure, mild, delightful tobacco.

"PAT" McDONALD

"Pat" McDonald, the big New York Policeman who won the 1912 shot put, 'best hand' at the Olympic Games, last summer, says:

"A pipeful of Tuxedo for mine. It's the best tobacco ever. I actually feel stronger after a smoke session with Tuxedo."

Pat McDonald

You can smoke Tuxedo, no matter how many other pipe-tobaccos you have tried and had to give up—for Tuxedo does not irritate the most sensitive mouth, throat or nose—in fact, many public speakers and singers find that smoking Tuxedo has a soothing, helpful influence on their throats.

Tuxedo is made from the very best, selected Burley tobacco grown in Kentucky—carefully ripened, cured and aged until it is perfectly mild and mellow. Then treated by the famous "Tuxedo Process" that removes the last trace of "bite" and bitterness, and develops the wonderful fragrance and flavor of the Burley leaf. Tuxedo has many imitators in the tin—but as long as the secrets of the "Tuxedo Process" remain undiscovered, it will have no equal in the pipe or cigarette.

JOEL HILLMAN

Joel Hillman, proprietor of the famous "Harvey's" restaurant at Washington, says:

"Tuxedo is a good, wholesome tobacco, with a mildness and fragrance all its own. It adds many degrees to my pipe pleasure."

Joel Hillman

FREE

This Free Watch Fob offer is made to induce more men to try Tuxedo. Because every man who gives Tuxedo a week's trial will find at the end of that time, he has had the most enjoyable and beneficial smoke-week of his life! Why not get that Free Watch Fob today!

GEO. CURRY

Geo. Curry, ex-Governor, and ex-Congressman from New Mexico, says:

"Tuxedo appeals to me strongly on account of its cool, mild, pleasant flavor. Therein lies its superiority to all other tobaccos."

Geo Curry

HENRY STUCKART

Henry Stuckart, City Treasurer of Chicago, says:

"I regard Tuxedo as not only absolutely harmless, but genuinely beneficial. Tuxedo goes in my pipe always."

Henry Stuckart

WALTER WELLMAN

Walter Wellman, famous journalist, explorer and aviator, says:

"In the Arctic regions, through weary days in camp at Spitzbergen, or sailing 1,000 miles over the Atlantic in the airship America, my favorite tobacco has always been Tuxedo."

Walter Wellman

GARRETT P. SERVISS

Garrett P. Serviss, prominent scientist and writer, author of "The Second Degree," etc., says:

"I have tried many brands of tobacco, good, bad and indifferent, before alighting upon Tuxedo, the ideal smoke."

Garrett P. Serviss

JOHN J. MCGRAW

John J. McGraw, famous manager of the New York Giants, champion of the National League, says:

"Tuxedo goes to my pipe smoking a keen enjoyment that I have experienced with no other tobacco. Supreme in mildness and fragrance is Tuxedo."

John J. McGraw

HENRY REUTERDAHL

Henry Reuterdaahl, famous naval artist, and expert on naval construction, says:

"You've got to smoke while sailing out of doors in winter—it helps you to keep warm. And a pipeful of pure, mild Tuxedo tobacco makes one forget the cold, and the paint flows more freely."

Henry Reuterdaahl

VICIOUS CLASS LEGISLATION

The whole nation is waiting to see what President Wilson will do with the rank piece of class legislation proposed in the sundry civil bill now before congress.

The bill has a provision for the appropriation of money for the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law with the proviso that no part of this money shall be spent for enforcing the law against any organization or individual for entering into any agreement or combination having in view the increasing of wages, the shortening of hours or bettering the condition of labor; or, against any combination of farmers organized in an effort to maintain a fair and reasonable price for their products.

In other words the bill provides that the anti-trust law shall not apply to farmers and labor unions; for no law can be enforced without some expenditure of money.

This is nothing more or less than class legislation, against which the labor unions should protest no matter in whose favor it may be proposed. The bill should be so amended that the money may be used to enforce the anti-trust law alike against all transgressors.

If such legislation be enacted in favor of labor today, why cannot some similar measure be enacted against labor and in favor of other interests tomorrow? But why should any such exemptions be proposed?

Should such a provision of law be placed upon the statute books it would afford ample and complete security for the I. W. W. while planning a general strike to paralyze the business of the country. That organization claims to exist for the purpose of increasing wages with the additional purpose of seizing all the avenues of production and transportation for the toilers. Is that a combination that should come under the special protection of the national government of this republic?

We do not think that anybody at the present time can deny that under the head of labor organizations can be found every class and type from the honest, straightforward and legitimate labor unions to the fomenters of revolution and anarchy who parade under the folds of the red flag and resort to the most violent methods.

Then as to the farmers, with such a law in force, under the pretext of maintaining a "reasonable price" for their products, they might combine to put up the price of those products to such an extent that the cost of living would go still higher. Why should they be given any special privilege by which to injure the whole nation for their own benefit?

It has been said that the law is no respecter of persons, but if this provision were placed upon the statute books, it would be a case of ancient maxim which has held an honored place in all systems of jurisprudence from the days of Justinian down to the present time.

How such a proposition could be brought forward for the consideration of congress shows to what an extent some politicians will pander to certain interests for selfish motives. It is for the interests of labor unions and of farmers also that special privilege and class legislation shall be completely stamped out, and to attain that end, both should spurn the proposition to give them exemption from the operation of a law whose aim is to protect all the people against combinations of every sort that might impose oppressive burdens or take unfair advantage of others. It is legal to strike, to organize, to maintain labor unions; but if societies originally organized for a good purpose depart from that purpose and set out to use violence, coercion or fraud to secure their ends they should be held amenable to the law without any distinction as to class or whether they are high or low, rich or poor.

President Taft vetoed this provision and we have not the slightest doubt that President Wilson will promptly do the same and for the reasons we have cited as well as many others that might be adduced. The constitution stands as a bulwark against such attempts at class legislation. For the fourteenth amendment guarantees equal protection to all citizens under the laws. If President Taft vetoed this same proposition, surely it can have no chance of favorable consideration from a president who stands at the head of the democratic party, and who is now looked up to as the chief exponent of true Jeffersonian democracy and this law would be anything but democratic.

TARIFF LOBBYISTS

The extreme watchfulness of the president is again evidenced in his declaration regarding the attempts of opponents of the coming tariff measure to discredit the bill by excessive lobbying. His policy thus far during his administration has been to keep silence until a critical time, but when he has spoken to the general public his words have been called forth by necessity, and they have done much to strengthen his party and keep it firm to the principles declared before election.

It has been generally understood that during the tariff fight the special interests have kept hosts of representatives at Washington in the attempt to influence legislators and convince public opinion that the manufacturers of the country as a unit were opposed to the tariff. The press is flooded with paid advertisements; at every side we meet statements that the tariff bill is unscientific and unnecessary, and fraught with danger to the prosperity of the country. The president declares that lobbyists are so thick in Washington that one "couldn't throw a brick without hitting one," and he spoke of this lobbying as being especially directed to "special alterations" which are generally conceded to be the wool and sugar schedules.

That this excessive lobbying is largely "insidious" is one of the charges made by the president. He accuses the opponents of the new tariff bill of striving to warp the judgment of the public and of the entire country. "There is every evidence," he says, "that money without limit is being spent to sustain this lobby and to create an appearance of a pressure of public opinion antagonistic to some of the chief items of the tariff bill."

The declaration of the president will add weight to the attempt of Senator Kenyon of Iowa and Representative Smith of New York to make laws which would regulate lobbying on pending legislation. Their bills would restrict the work of lobbyists, require their registration, and provide that they are licensed to appear before any committee or to carry on a campaign for or against proposed legislation. Although this is desirable in theory, it is doubtful if it would work for good in practice as there ought to be a fair opportunity for both sides to present their arguments on proposed legislation, and any law which would curtail the rights of individuals or groups of individuals should be a matter of great delicacy. Still, it may be averred in support of the Kenyon-Smith bill that the present lobbying methods are meant as much to deceive the country as to influence legislation at Washington, and as such it deserves richly to be curtailed. Undoubtedly the timely declaration of President Wilson will do much to place the matter in its true light before the masses of the people.

NATURALIZATION

It does not seem that the matter of naturalization of aliens is being conducted in this city with regard to the convenience of those who are desirous of becoming citizens. True, the arrangement of local naturalization sessions has been a great boon to many, but there are still some matters that require adjustment before the system will work satisfactorily.

There ought to be some one place where those who desire to make application for naturalization papers can obtain reliable information. The logical place for this is at the court house, but it might also be given either at the police station or at city hall. Requests for such information come constantly to the local newspaper offices, and it is difficult to get any definite data even from officials of the superior court. The present system of publishing the date in the newspapers a few days before, is not entirely satisfactory, as among those who desire the privilege of citizenship are many who do not ordinarily read the papers. The date ought to be set far enough ahead to give foreigners a chance to prepare, and there ought to be some one place locally where reliable information regarding coming naturalization sessions may be secured.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

It is very gratifying to find that the change in the time of the municipal council meetings was attended with a like change for the better in business despatch. The meeting held yesterday demonstrated what can be done by the elimination of unnecessary aspects and a strict attention to business. Harmony should prevail as far as possible and there should be a greater regard for the necessary business of the city than for displays which are meant to reach possible sympathizers on the outside. Yesterday's meeting is worthy of praise, and we sincerely hope that it is but the first of a series which shall be characterized by dignity and close attention to business rather than by any spectacular features.

Women like a brave man, partly perhaps because it takes a brave man to get married.

A man can't understand why his wife should think that he is disorderly and careless when he invariably cleans his pipe every time he smokes.

A fond mother can always tell just what the baby is trying to say, even when the baby doesn't know itself.

Even when a man is perfectly contented with himself, he can't be absolutely sure that everybody else is.

The little daughter of a prominent divine, was recently taken to her mother's church, and she was, of course, intensely interested in all that went on.

A true little Yankee, her first remark to her mother on coming out was, "The old lady in the nightgown got paid for singing."

"Yes, I suppose so," replied her mother.

"And does father get paid, too?"

"Well, I shouldn't think they'd have to pay him much, for he does nothing but talk, and he just loves to do that."

The young man smiled. He was proud of himself. For had not a young woman just remarked that he looked like a musical comedy star, a matinee idol, or whom girls gushed and fawned?

For three weeks after the young man told every acquaintance he met what the girl had said and began to believe that he was good looking, and a really wonderful person. He seldom talked of anything else.

Then came the awakening. One day he was walking on Walnut street close behind two young women. One of them looked familiar, and the man heard her speak his name. He picked up his ears.

"It certainly is easy," the girl was saying. "I told him one day that he looked like Joe Stanley, and he came over and asked me to go to the opera with him. He took me to three shows and bought several boxes of candy for me. You ought to try it sometime. It's a good one, Clara."

The young man hurriedly turned the corner. —Kansas City Times.

It was the Scottish minister's second Sunday in his new parish, and he had reason to complain of the meagre collection.

"Nay," replied one of the elders, "there are plenty of tithers close by. But" —

"He came closer and became more confidential," the elder minister said. "He said that he was a tithing man."

"Oh, course he took the sabbath day with him after that," said the minister.

The new minister tried the same plan.

Pimpily? Well, Don't Be

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pimples will vanish after a few nights.

Nothing ever cleansed the blood, the bowels and the liver like Olive Tablets. Olive Tablets are the only successful substitute for calomel—they oil the bowels; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Olive Tablets do all that calomel does and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, flatulent, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are made of pure vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Try them. Take one nightly for a week. Then look at yourself in the glass and see how you feel. 10c and 25c per box.

but the following Sunday was a repetition of the other, a dismal failure. The entire collection was not only small, but to his great consternation, his own coins were missing. He may be a better preacher than the audience, but he is not a better collector. He had half the knowledge of the world and a per cent more of the world's goods than he had in the collection box.

The Australian census has not failed to yield some amusing returns. Most of us would find it difficult to spell "Presbyterian" in a dozen different ways, but the census officer had 32 different variations heaved at him, while 35 ways of spelling "Roman Catholic" were achieved. "Roaming Catholic" being one.

And a devout adherent of the Shirts of England was discovered.

There were many quaint varieties of religion—"simple livers," "blue lights," "labor reformers," and so on, while one lovely bit of sarcasm came from a temporary inmate of a large prison—described himself as a "secluded saint."

FORGET IT

Are you ever puffed up with inordinance? And think that your standing is high?

Are you ever convinced that deep woes would betide you if you were to suddenly die?

Do you ever imagine the whole world would pause if you were the one in the house?

Forget it—the world wouldn't wobble, because it would probably miss others worse.

Are you ever obsessed with the feeling that you are the main spoke in the wheel?

Do you ever insist that great honors are your due, and to you all mankind should kneel?

Do you ever opine that when you are called home, "Till cause the machinery to break?" Forget it—the hole you will leave as immense as a needle withdrawn from the lake.

Are you working away at your talents, and doing the best that you can?

Are you honest and square? Does your soul never tire?

In loving your own fellow man, are you meeting each duty, however humble your lot?

Are you standing strict watch on your post?

That's enough—though we all will be quickly forgot, it is you that the world will miss most.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Optimism

Brooklyn Times: The United States Steel corporation is proceeding with plans for a $15,000,000 plant in Alabama, and officials of another steel concern announce they feel no cause for worry, as they believe themselves capable of meeting in some way any foreign competition that may be instituted. Here is one industry accounted for, and though its prospects may not be closely related to the output of manufacturers in other lines, its attitude is encouraging. As the steel trade has been regarded as a gauge of prosperity, so may its brace against the Underwood bill be received as an indication of the popular course of industry in general. Given

Senate vs. Courts

Fall River Herald: Senator Stillwell has been convicted of robbery by a jury of his peers in New York court. The same senator was acquitted of the same charges by his colleagues in the New York state senate prior to the jury trial. The public will draw its own conclusions, and those conclusions cannot be favorable to the senators who voted a guilty man guiltless, when all the weight of evidence was clearly against the man.

Chance to Investigate

Lynn Item: In these days of investigations, both public and private, there would seem to be a good opportunity for congress to turn its attention in the direction of California. It might be instructive for a committee of congress to inquire how and why the Japanese trouble was started. There is a hint that the land bill was passed with the full understanding that it would be offensive to Japan.

Tariff Hearings

Johnstown Democrat: We prefer to believe that the people knew what they were doing when they commissioned the democratic party to correct the abuses which resulted in republican disaster. The democrats could not do this commission through the correction of these abuses if they were to follow the old methods and accept the old guidance. They could not yield to the special interests and write their sordid plans into a tariff bill without stultification and without perpetuating the very abuses they were commissioned to correct. They are therefore following a logical line in refusing the hearings demanded by the trusts and combines; and they would be stupid indeed, if they permitted the clamors of the lobby to divert them from the plain course of framing a tariff which will yield revenue without promoting monopoly.

The Losing Progressives

Worcester Post: The trouble with the so-called "progressive" party is that, while containing much of high aspiration, as well as refuse of politics, it is as yet too rabidly idealistic, too lacking in definite practical program, too oblivious of the lines between state and federal power, or proper exercise of governmental power at all, for the doing of the good things it desires. It simply lacks the vital and enduring principle of party existence. This may come from a fastidiousness of democratic policies now and from continuance later of reactionary control of the republican party. But except for these contingencies, there is no room for full moons.

Both Sides

Fall River Globe: Secretary Redfish is talking too much, says a contemporary. So, too, are some of the people to whom he has been addressing himself on the subject to which his critic takes exception.

Speed Mania

Salem News: There would be but precious little discussion about speed limitation were it not for a small, very small percentage of auto drivers, who make tools of themselves by whizzing over the highways at excessive speeds. Some of these men are drunk, some are speed maniacs because they do not know much better, and still others are contemptuous of all restraints. Next year, when they rely upon the possession of family wealth to save them from the consequences of unmitigated folly or recklessness, it is this same small, very small percentage of men, who are in the trouble and the embarrassments it causes—that all blame must be imputed.

Rainbow Trout

Brooklyn Times: For establishing the American rainbow trout in Germany, the United States commissioner of fisheries has been given a silver medal. Doubtless it was a great and good work, but if he had established trout a little more plentifully in this country, his name might have been considered worthy of something more lasting than silver.

Boxing

Lynn Telegram: We believe in boxing—clean, scientific boxing—but we do not countenance the spectacle of two men, one more than average square and pummeling each other. The sheer brutality of the sport is evidence of the death of the noblest of the weight champion. The title is given to McCarty, although the negro, Johnson, has claimed it. The disgusting spectacle of a negro, now in the hands of the federal government for alleged traffic in white slaves and for smuggling, has been the "boxer" class. The death of McCarty, while it may be classed as an accident, will do the rest, and it will not be long before there is an end to the so-called sport.

THIRTY-FOUR EXECUTED

Game Cocks Put to Death

at Stow

BOSTON, May 26.—The 34 game

cocks captured by the state police and agents of the Massachusetts S. P. C. A. in a raid at a main in Hudson a week ago were sentenced to death by Judge Kingsbury in the South Framingham court yesterday, and soon after were taken to Stow and executed.

The birds were valued at about $2000 and were all full blooded fighting cocks, many of them considered to be some of the best in the country.

Another lot of 42 game cocks captured last Sunday in a raid conducted by the society agents and the police, also valued at about $2000, was ordered before the court this week, either to be pardoned or sentenced to death.

A number of men alleged to have been at the Hudson raid will be brought into court today to answer to the charge of being present at a cock fight and also to be present where gaming was in progress.

Railway Business for March

For the month of March the operating income per mile of line decreased $1.3 per cent for the year, or $1.3 per cent, increased 65 per cent for the railways of the south and increased 2.4 per cent for the railways of the west as compared with March, 1912. The average for the railways of the entire country decreased 3.9 per cent.

This operating income for the 32,035 miles of line operated by the 100 largest of the railways to the interstate commerce commission aggregated for the month $22,137,597, or $235 per mile of line, which is equivalent to $7.57 per mile of line per day. Operating income is that proportion of their receipts which remains available to the railways for rentals, interest on bonds, appropriations for betterments, improvements, new construction and for dividends.

The aggregate of the total operating revenues for the month was $241,945,518, an increase of $9,561,272 over March, 1912. The operating expenses were $172,234,167, or $14,104,256 more than for March, 1912. The net operating revenue was $69,711,351, or $4,233,264 less than for March, 1912. Taxes were $10,418,255, an increase of 7.7 per cent per mile of line over March, 1912, leaving the operating income $59,293,096, or $2.86 per mile of line as stated.

THOUSANDS HONOR SOLDIER AND SAILOR DEAD OF SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR AT FIELD MASS.

THROUGH AT MEMORIAL SERVICE
CHILDREN OF WAR SURVIVORS
Father CHIDWICK, CHAPLAIN OF THE MAINE

NEW YORK, May 28.—Special interest attached to the annual memorial mass for the soldier and sailor dead of the Spanish-American war at the Brooklyn navy yard this year because of the celebration planned for Memorial day for the unveiling of the Maine memorial monument. The service was attended by 20,000 persons, and among the clergy who officiated was the Very Rev. John P. Chidwick, who was chaplain of the Maine when she was blown up in Havana harbor. He was master of ceremonies at the mass. This yearly tribute by the Roman Catholic church to those who lost their lives in the war of 1898 is held the Sunday preceding Memorial day. This was the eleventh annual mass, and it was conducted under the auspices of Gloucester Camp No. 5, United Spanish War Veterans, and the Long Island branches of the Knights of Columbus. The grand marshal was Captain Robert N. Mackin, and James S. Long, adjutant-general and chief of staff, was at the head of the marchers. Behind them came detachments from the Fourteenth and Fifty-seventh regiments, national guard, and the Irish Volunteers, the United Spanish War Veterans, United States Volunteer Life Saving Corps, life saving service, United States customs service, Naval Employees' Benefit association, police, with Inspector John P. Dwyer in command; Breckenridge of Deputy Chief Kirk, Manhattan and Brooklyn letter carriers and many Catholic societies. The honor guard, composed of the survivors of the battleship Maine, came down the grounds and formed themselves into the shape of a cross in front of the altar. The priests followed.

DYE WORKS GETS PERMIT

To Store 280 Gallons of Gasoline

The municipal council held another meeting yesterday afternoon, the second meeting taking place in less than half an hour after the adjournment of the first meeting. The council reconvened at 2:15 o'clock and took up the petition of the Dillon Dye Works for the storage and use of gasoline at its plant in East Merrimack street. The dye works' representative said he had been in Boston and had talked with Deputy Chief Neal of the district police and he was awaiting instructions from that official. On motion of Commissioner Cummings it was voted to grant the permit with the understanding that the instructions of the district police shall be lived up to. The total number of gallons mentioned in the permit is 280 gallons and it will be stored in four separate tanks. There were no remonstrances to the petition. Commissioner Donnelly was granted permission to buy, through the purchasing agent's office, three carloads of Texaco No. 95 road asphalt, according to specifications furnished by the city engineer and the samples to be tested by Mr. Master, inspector of milk and vinegar.

GREEN VS. BARRETT

Hearing Postponed Until Next Tuesday

The case of W. J. Green vs. Commissioner Andrew E. Barrett, which originated under mandamus proceedings, Mr. Green seeking to be reinstated as a substitute call man in the fire department, was scheduled for a hearing yesterday before the supreme judicial court in Boston. It was, however, postponed until Tuesday. Commissioner Barrett and City Clerk Flynn both went down to attend the hearing.

DIPHTHERIA APPEARS

Milk Supply May Convey the Disease

Is the milk supply responsible for a mild outbreak of diphtheria recently discovered by the board of health? This question was considered by the board at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon and the board voted to investigate. Twenty-five cases have been reported at the office of the board within the last week and 14 of the reports came from Centralville.

It was stated at the meeting that the American Hide & Leather Co. had abolished the Howe street nuisance. The business of the meeting consisted of the granting of a swill license to Thomas Carroll of Dracut; a report from Dr. Hamblett was to the effect that he had discovered some tuberculous meat and the board acknowledged that the question confronting it is whether or not the seller of meat of a creature which has been condemned, can be prosecuted.

Agent Bates said that a Miss Wiggins, representative of an association which is looking after sanitary and hygienic conditions, had agreed to look into the homes of all workers in bakeries and to render a report of her findings to the board of health.

It was voted to notify the owner of a bakery in Charles street, that was complained of, to clean the place up.

Agent Bates said there are seven cases of diphtheria in the Billings street school. In one other school, he said, there are two cases. He believed the cases were due largely to contact.

Mr. Bates said that of the twenty-five cases on hand at the present time, fourteen of them are in Centralville, and Dr. Brunelle allowed that this indicated a neighborhood infection.

Advance Unjustified
WASHINGTON, May 28.—An advance of one cent a hundred pounds in break-bulk rates by carriers for the transportation of grain and grain products from Milwaukee and other Wisconsin points to Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other eastern destinations was held by the interstate commerce commission yesterday to be unjustified. The carriers were ordered to cancel the advance and maintain the old rates.

GOV. FOSS AGAIN REFUSES SHOT WITH OWN WEAPON IMPOSE FINES OF $81,500

Turns Down Request of Employees

BOSTON, May 28.—According to a statement made last night by the committee which visited Governor Foss, the governor refused to submit the matters at issue to arbitration, saying that although he believed in labor unions, he would not deal with them in the present instance, preferring to treat with his men as individuals.

Mayor Fitzgerald, after a short talk with members of the committee notified the Massachusetts board of conciliation and arbitration that a strike was threatened at the Sturtevant and Becker plants, and called upon them to act under the law.

Governor Foss gave it as his opinion according to the committee that his employees were not organized, and that no strike would occur.

International union officers took an opposite view last night and voted formal ratification of any action which may be taken at tonight's meeting.

Patrolman Dies—Refuses to Make Charge

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 28.—Patrick Considine, the policeman of CHilside, N. J., who was shot Saturday night with his own revolver by James Devlin, a vaudeville actor, died yesterday of his wound. With his last breath he refused to make any charge against his assailant.

Devlin accused Considine of being too attentive to Devlin's wife. "If you think I am the man you say I am, you had better end it all by shooting me," said the policeman, proffering his revolver. "I had with jealousy, Devlin snatched the weapon and fired. Devlin was overcome with grief last night in jail when he heard of Considine's death.

Danish Government to Resign

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, May 28.—The Danish premier yesterday informed the party leaders that as a result of the recent elections the government would resign on June 12, when the Danish parliament reassembles.

6 Corporations and 11 Individuals Found Guilty

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 28.—Fines aggregating $81,500 were imposed last night in United States district court by Judge John R. Hazel of Buffalo, in the cases of six corporations and 11 individual defendants in the government's action against the so-called "coaster brake" trust for violation of the Sherman law. Six corporations and eight individuals yesterday pleaded guilty to two counts of the indictment, conspiring to restrain trade and attempting to monopolize domestic and foreign trade. Four individuals pleaded nolle contendere. Three of the four were among the 11 defendants fined. Six additional cases were discontinued by nolle prosequi.

Officers Elected
A branch of the Parent Teachers' association was formed in Chelmsford yesterday and the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, Mrs. A. ## KING ALFONSO SMILED AT DANGER IN PARIS; CHATTING WITH POINCARE

KING ALFONSO OF SPAIN
Pres. POINCARE OF FRANCE

PARIS, May 28.—This picture was taken on the recent visit of King Alfonso of Spain to Paris and shows the king on the rear seat of the carriage at the left of President Poincaré of France. Alfonso had only a few weeks before escaped death from the hands of an assassin, who had shot at him. His visit to France, therefore, was watched by the entire world, because it was feared that another attempt would be made upon his life. The French police ripped a plot in the bud and successfully guarded him from anarchists. The king did not seem to take his danger seriously. While in public in Paris he at all times was smiling. His family smiled with the new president of the French republic.

PROPOSALS FOR COAL

Sealed proposals addressed to the Middlesex county commissioners and endorsed "Proposals for Coal" will be received by said Commissioners at the Court House, Cambridge, until Tuesday, the third day of June, 1913, at 12 o'clock a. m. for a supply of coal to be delivered as described below, and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

All bids must be upon blank forms to be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, and must give the prices proposed both in writing and in figures, and be signed by the bidder with his address.

Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars ($200), payable to the County of Middlesex, said check to be returned to the bidder unless he fails to execute a contract should it be awarded to him.

A bond will be required for the faithful performance of the contract in such sum as shall be fixed by said Commissioners, and the bond to be opened; said sum to be not less than one-fourth nor more than one-half of the amount of the contract.

All bids will be compared on the basis of the estimated quantities of coal needed which are as follows:

125 tons, more or less, of best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

25 tons, more or less, best "Lackawanna Broken" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

The above to be delivered at the Lowell jail when required by the keeper and in such quantities as he may order.

50 tons, more or less, best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

25 tons, more or less, best "Lackawanna Broken" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

The above to be delivered at the Training school, at North Chelmsford at such time and in such quantities as the superintendent may order.

ALTERNATIVE BID FOR TRAINING SCHOOL.

500 tons, more or less, best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

25 tons, more or less, best "Lackawanna Broken" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

25 tons, more or less, best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

The above to be delivered F. O. B. care, North Chelmsford, Mass.

50 tons, more or less, best "Lackawanna Broken" coal, or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

To be delivered at the Lowell Court House, in such quantities and at such times as the janitor may order.

The quantities are approximate only and the commissioners expressly reserve the right of increasing or diminishing the same.

Specifications and forms of proposal and contract may be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, Mass.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids or accept any bid as they may deem best.

COBB AGAIN SHOWING AMERICAN LEAGUE PLAYERS WHO'S WHO

PITCHER JACK COOMBS OF THE ATHLETICS OUT OF GAME BY ILLNESS

DETROIT, May 28.—Ty Cobb is again on the warpath. The great Detroit outfielder is making things very unpleasant for opposing pitchers and fielders. Ty is leading his league in batting and pulling off some wonderful base running stunts. In a recent game with Washington Cobb's daring base running produced Detroit's only tally, the third run scored off Johnson this season. With one out in the seventh inning Cobb beat out an infield hit and went to third, when Gandil muffed Johnson's throw to catch Ty off first. As Johnson prepared to pitch to Veach Cobb streaked home and slid safely around Almsmith, who appeared to be waiting with the ball for the runner. A few days later he performed the same feat, against Philadelphia. Cobb did not join his team until the season was a few weeks old. There was a little difference between President Navin and Cobb over salary. Finally it was settled. Ty started the season off very poorly, and during the series with New York he was forced to retire. It was given out that he had sore eyes. Some scribes stated that Ty's sun was beginning to set, but once more he has fooled them.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Jack Coombs, one of the star pitchers of the Philadelphia Athletics, may not be able to get into the game again this season. He became seriously ill about a month ago and is still quite sick, though his physician says he has passed the crisis. Coombs pitched the opening contest in Boston, but did not finish the game. Later he was sent home threatened with pneumonia. Coombs never fully recovered from his injury in the world's series in New York in 1911. On the return from the training trip this spring the Athletics were held up by floods, and Coombs ate some bad food, which resulted in a mild form of ptomaine poisoning. On top of this he contracted a severe cold, which caused him to collapse.

CHICAGO, May 25.—At least two widows and a fiancée are mourning the death of Homer E. Morrison, real estate dealer, and the police are working on clues which may lead them to three other women who can claim the man as their late husbands.

Morrison died last Thursday of what may have been poisoning. Two of his wives have complained he took $17,000 of their money and a widow who says he promised to marry her admits she gave him $1000.

Mrs. Homer Morrison says she married Morrison three years ago; Mrs. H. W. Thompson says she married the same man under the name of Thompson several years ago; Mrs. Pearl McDevitt asserts Morrison promised to make her his next month.

The police learned yesterday that Morrison had brought a woman to the rooming house about a year ago. He introduced her as his wife and she spoke to women at the place of their home in Evanston. Evidence indicates he may have left a widow in La Salle, Ill. and another in Barrington, Ill.

DIST. ATTY. HIGGINS IN LOWELL TODAY

Counsel in Land Case at Superior Court Session Before Judge Pratt—Jury Waived Session

The case of Frank W. Coughlin vs. Lawrence C. Swain, an action of contract arising from civil business, was begun this morning in the superior court with District Attorney John J. Higgins representing the plaintiff and McIntire & Wilson appearing for the defendant in the declaration. Plaintiff states that the defendant sold him a tract of undeveloped real estate in Wilmington, a copy of the deed of which was annexed to the declaration. Plaintiff states that he paid the defendant the sum of $5000 on account and delivered a mortgage on the land to secure payment of the balance of $5000 in three years at the rate of 5 per cent interest. It is claimed that the defendant represented the land as being the best in Wilmington, saying that it comprised 215 acres, only 10 of which were swamp land, while in reality the plaintiff charged, there were only 204 acres and 104 of these were swamp land, unfit for small farms or house lots. The damage claimed is $10,000.

In answer to this declaration, defendant makes a general denial of the material allegations together with a plea concerning the law which he claims demands a contract in writing for such a transaction.

The first witness, and one who was on the stand through nearly the entire forenoon was a Mr. Millhouse, put on by the plaintiff's counsel to be qualified as an expert on real estate. Replying to the opening series of questions, witness stated that he was born in Germany and received his education in a classical college in that country, afterwards studying civil engineering in one of the universities. He said that he has been engaged in the construction or engineering work in South Africa and other places and that eight years ago he came to America. He said further that he has done considerable work for Mr. Coughlin, the plaintiff, and is familiar with the land in question, having done some work upon it.

By means of a chart, witness questioned by Mr. Higgins, pointed out the general character of the land, indicating the drainage ditches. He exhibited plans which he had gotten out with Mr. Coughlin for the drainage of the property. He said that he valued at $25 per acre, approximately.

Witness was then cross examined by Mr. Wilson for the defense, who questioned him closely regarding the size, direction and particular location of the ditches which are said to drain the land.

In the afternoon the plaintiff, Mr. Coughlin, was on the stand and testified to his purchasing of the land, giving the particulars of the transaction. Replying to cross examination by Attorney Wilson, he denied that he had asked Mr. Swain to buy certain land for him and he also emphatically denied having attempted to sell the land in question to the Boston and Maine as a location for their

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 28.—Introduction of further testimony to show the abstemious habits of the plaintiff was resumed today in the libel suit of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newett, publisher of the Iron Ore of Ishpeming, Mich., who charged him with drunkenness. John Callan O'Loughlin, a Washington correspondent, was the first witness. The tenor of which pervaded the atmosphere of Judge Flannigan's court the first two days seemed to have subsided. Lawyers, witnesses and principals engaged in the suit smilingly took up the thread of the case where it left off yesterday. Col. Roosevelt entered with George Shiras, his host here, and took his seat with a row of spectators inside the railing. His gaze turned upon the jury and then upon O'Loughlin as the latter was sworn. Mr. Newett came into court with his counsel. He is very ill but his ruddy countenance hid this from all but those who know him well. He sat looking straight in front of him and not at any one in particular, utterly emotionless as he has sat thus far in the proceedings.

Although Col. Roosevelt on returning from Europe after his African hunt was obliged to attend banquets and receptions tendered him by businessmen, he never indulged in champagne to an immoderate degree, was the testimony of O'Loughlin, who said he had been associated with Col. Roosevelt for 20 years. The witness said he met the former president on the Nile after the African hunt and accompanied him as far as Paris, acting as his secretary. O'Loughlin also accompanied the colonel on various campaign trips in this country.

"During your 20 years' experience with Colonel Roosevelt have you ever seen him in the slightest degree under the influence of liquor?"

"Never saw Teddy drunk."

"I not only never saw him under the influence of liquor but it seems absolutely silly to me to have anyone suggest the fact that he ever was," replied Mr. O'Loughlin emphatically.

"At banquets have you seen him drink any liquor?"

"At banquets he sometimes took a glass of white wine. I never saw him drink more than one glass of champagne."

O'Loughlin described the various dinners, official and otherwise, given at Washington, including dinners at the Gridiron club.

"Will you tell this jury whether Mr. Roosevelt mixed his drinks or not?"

"If he took champagne he never took anything else."

Regarding the custom of former presidents in regard to liquors at banquets, O'Loughlin said his first experience with presidents began with the second Cleveland administration and Col. Roosevelt followed the precedent of Presidents Cleveland and McKinley in serving wines at public dinners.

"Are you not in charge of some work of the progressive party?" O'Loughlin was asked on cross examination.

"I am not."

To Japan For Roosevelt

O'Loughlin said Col. Roosevelt appointed him assistant secretary of state and he went on a mission to Japan for the Roosevelt administration. This was the same year that Col. Roosevelt ordered the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific.

"Now you mention that Col. Roosevelt sent the fleet to the Pacific. Was that a measure taken because of the relations between this country and Japan? Was it to prevent war?"

Measure of Peace

"Well, it was perfectly evident that Japan would not go to war with this country as it was apparent that this country was the more powerful. It was one of the measures taken by Col. Roosevelt to prevent it; it was a measure of peace."

O'Loughlin referred in his testimony to Col. Roosevelt's visit to Rome and the incident with regard to the pope.

O'Loughlin explained that as the colonel's secretary after the colonel had left Africa on his tour of the continental capitals he communicated with Ambassador Leshman at Rome to arrange for the reception of Col. Roosevelt by the king of Italy and the pontiff.

WOOD AND ATTEAUX AT STRIKE MEETING

Judge Chandler of the Lawrence Court Testifies—Heard Wood Say He Never Saw Dynamite

BOSTON, May 28.—Evidence relating to the labors of Frederick E. Atteaux in endeavoring to settle the Lawrence textile strike was given at the "dynamite" trial today together with that of Max Mitchell, a Boston banker, who appeared as a government witness. Through Mitchell's testimony District Attorney Pelletier sought further to support the prosecution's claim, that President William M. Wood of the American Woolen Co., Dennis J. Collins and Atteaux conspired with John J. Breen and Ernest W. Pittman to discredit the strikers by "planting" dynamite at Lawrence. Mitchell, who was formerly a social worker of this city, and who was active in trying to bring the Lawrence troubles to an end, told of numerous conferences arranged by Atteaux between representatives of the company and the strikers. On one occasion, he said, Atteaux was able to restore peace at a meeting that was threatened with disruption. Atteaux, he said, shared his own views that the strike was the result of a misunderstanding and that a settlement could be arranged as soon as each side had a true realization of the other's position. ## ENDED HIS LIFE IN JAIL LONG LINE OF BIG PIPE

Man Was to Face Murder Charge Next Week—New Main From Dutton St. to Princeton

CLAREMONT, N. H., May 28.—George Kendall of Lebanon, who was awaiting trial next week for the murder of Joseph Osgood of Plainfield on Dec. 5, committed suicide in the county jail today by hanging. Mrs. Kendall was kept in the jail with her husband, but recovered.

SHOT WITH OWN WEAPON

Patrolman Dies—Refuses to Make Charge

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 28.—Patrick Considine, the policeman of Cliffside, N. J., who was shot Saturday night with his own revolver by James Devlin, a vaudeville actor, died yesterday of his wound. With his last breath he refused to make any charge against his assailant.

Devlin accused Considine of being too attentive to Devlin's wife. "If you think I am the man you say I am, you had better end it all by shooting me," said the policeman, preferring his revolver. Mad with jealousy, Devlin snatched the weapon and fired. Devlin was overcome with grief last night in jail when he heard of Considine's death.

Five Chinese Indicted

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 28.—Indictments were returned against five Chinese by the federal grand jury today, charging them with manufacturing and selling opium in this city. The homes of the five men were raided by federal officials from Boston several months ago and $12,000 worth of opium seized.

Fire at University of Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 28.—The south wing of the university hall, the oldest building on the University of Michigan, was destroyed by fire today.

Big Deluge Gun

The fire department has a big "deluge gun" that has not been used since Hector was a pup and Fire Chief Sanders is going to give it a tryout. The deluge gun, which is mounted and coiled in the Pawtucketville fire house for about 20 years and so far as is known, the water shooter was used only once in all that time. The last time it was used was at the Parker block fire. That was about ten years ago and nobody knows how many men or cinders the deluge gun killed that night. It was heard to belch, and was seen to belch, but no record was ever made of the deed and the gun is now at the Central fire station keeping guard over the Elk's cat and her kittens.

Women's Golf Championship

BOSTON, May 28.—Four Country club players won their matches in the second round of the Boston Women's golf championship today. In the semifinal tomorrow Miss Louisa Wells will play Miss Fannie Osgood, while Miss Harriet Curtis will meet her sister, Miss Margaret Curtis, the present national champion.

WHY GIRLS LEAVE SCHOOL

Title of Bulletin by Bureau of Education

WASHINGTON, May 28.—"Why girls leave school" is the title of a bulletin issued today by the United States bureau of education, based on an inquiry made by its experts into trade and labor conditions among girls in Worcester, Mass. The claim that children are forced to leave school to work because their parents need the money is repudiated by the officials of the bureau. They found that from one-half to three-fourths of the girls at work in the factories could have had further schooling if they had desired or if their parents had insisted upon it.

Various reasons were assigned by the girls for their refusal to attend school longer, according to the bureau.

Growing Boys and Girls
Benefit from
Scott's Emulsion

Some said: "They did not like school"; others, "could not get along with the teachers and were not promoted," while many simply "wanted to go to work." Only 17 per cent of the girls questioned had finished the grammar schools, while most of them had left in the sixth and seventh grades.

"Conditions such as were found," says the bulletin, "emphasize the imperative need for special training of a practical sort for girls between the ages of 13 and 15. Not getting the kind of training they might have liked and would have profited by, they blindly joined the army of shifting, inefficient, discontented girls that go from one innumerable factory job to another."

"LE SUPPLEMENT"

New Daily Newspaper Started in Lowell—President of Corporation Buried This Morning

"Le Supplement," a weekly sheet, published for the past two years by the Oblate Fathers of St. Joseph's parish, has changed hands, and is now the property of a corporation of local French business men, the company having been incorporated May 12, 1913.

The sheet is now being published daily as a newspaper. The manager is H. O. Girard, while the printer is J. E. Lamberg. The president of the company was the late Auguste H. Jean, whose funeral took place this morning. The directors of the company will hold a meeting in a couple of days and elect a successor for the presidential chair.

Your grass will grow now in good shape, but you should keep it mowed with one of the Thompson Hardware Co.'s lawn mowers.

CLEVELANDS HAVE GREAT BATTERY
IN FALKENBERG AND CARISCH

CLEVELAND, May 28.—"Lanky" Fred Falkenberg of the Naps is the pitching sensation of the American league this season. It is his fine work in the box that has helped put and keep the Cleveland team near the top of the race. Falkenberg is not a youngster, but has seen many years in the big show. The long fellow always threatened to be a marvel, but never succeeded until this year. Early last season in the shakeup following Charlie Somers' purchase of the Toledo team as a Cleveland farm Falkenberg was sent to the American association team. He had a great season in Toledo, perfecting the fadeaway ball, which has had much to do with Christy Mathewson's success. Falkenberg was called back to Cleveland when Manager John Nelson of Rockport, Me., on watch forward. The towboat was sighted, her whistle making her presence known. Capt. Thompson kept off astern and clearing two barges, thought the way clear, the fog cutting out the view of the sternmost. Before she could be discovered the Chase crashed into the barge Bristol how on. The impact of the blow tore away the bowsprit and headgear and ripped the bow planking badly, so much so that the water poured in rapidly.

IN MY WORK AS NURSE
I ALWAYS RECOMMEND
COMFORT POWDER

Elizabeth C. Andrews, a Trained Nurse of So. Manchester, Conn., says "In my work as nurse I recommend Comfort Powder constantly. For babies it is a comfort and a blessing. I have never had a bed sore when I have been called in time, and even after the skin is broken Comfort Powder is a great help."

For all skin soreness of infants or adults Comfort Powder is a healing wonder. Be sure you get the genuine with signature of E. S. Sykes on box.

his first eight games in masterly style. Some credit must be given to Catcher Carisch for Falkenberg's success. The Naps' young receiver has helped steady Lanky Fred many times when it appeared he would blow up. Carisch's work behind the bat this year has been the best seen here in some time. Manager Birmingham says Carisch is the equal of any backstop in the American league. Carisch and Falkenberg are now the leading battery of the junior baseball organization.

4 SAVED FROM SCHOONER

The Chase Goes Down
Off Boone Island

GLOUCESTER, May 28.—The two-masted coasting schooner Chase, from Rockland, Me., for Boston, was sunk about 5 yesterday morning about five miles off Boone Island and her crew of four, including one woman, escaped going down with her by a hair's breadth.

The ocean-going tugboat Watuppa of Fall River was bound down the coast, having three ice-laden barges in tow. A dense fog prevailed at the time, obscuring all objects a short distance away. The Chase was bound up the coast light. Capt. James W. Thompson at the wheel and Seaman John Nelson of Rockport, Me., on watch forward. The towboat was sighted, her whistle making her presence known. Capt. Thompson kept off astern and clearing two barges, thought the way clear, the fog cutting out the view of the sternmost. Before she could be discovered the Chase crashed into the barge Bristol how on. The impact of the blow tore away the bowsprit and headgear and ripped the bow planking badly, so much so that the water poured in rapidly.

NARROW ESCAPE

BOY FELL FROM SECOND STORY GALLERY

Lionel Gendron, Aged 7 Years, Was Victim of Accident—Able to be Out and Around Today

Lionel Gendron, aged seven years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gendron of 205 Cheever street, narrowly escaped serious injury last night, when he fell from a gallery from the second story in the house occupied by his parents. Fortunately the boy sustained only a few scratches.

At about seven o'clock last night the little fellow was looking out of the window over the gallery of the second story, and dropped his cap below. In order to recover the cap the boy jumped out of the window on the roof of the gallery, and not being able to check himself, fell to the sidewalk below, a distance of about 20 feet.

Mr. Tullbault, a neighbor, who happened along at the time, picked up the boy, who was unconscious, and carried him to his parents' home. Dr. George E. Caisse was summoned and after a careful examination found that the boy was suffering from a stiff neck and a small bruise to the left leg. Today the little fellow is about as through nothing had happened.

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS TWO CHILDREN RUN OVER

Senate Finance Sub-Committees Met
Struck by Fire Auto in Somerville

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Members of the senate finance sub-committees met behind closed doors today and plunged into the mass of briefs and testimony relating to the Underwood tariff schedules, preparatory to making their reports to the entire committee some time next week. Many items, some of which have been declared, probably will be changed.

While the sub-committees were at work Senator Simons, chairman of the finance committee, sought counsel with Secretary Bryan and John Bassett Moore, counselor of the state department, regarding foreign protests against administrative features of the Underwood bill. The committee is considering eliminating the clause which would extend a 3 per cent tariff discount on imports in American owned or controlled ships. Many nations have protested that it is a violation of treaty rights.

BOTH CHILDREN were rushed to the Somerville hospital, where it was found that while they were seriously injured their names were not placed on the dangerous list.

LAWYER GIBSON, HIS ALLEGED VICTIM, SCENE OF HIS NEW TRIAL, JUDGE AND LAWYERS

NEWBURGH, N. Y., May 28.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer accused of the murder of his client, Mrs. Rosa M. Szabo, in order to secure her little fortune of $10,000, faced his second trial for his life in the courtboat capsized. Gibson claims that the boat simply overturned and that the woman was drowned after he had made vain efforts to save her. The state set up as a motive that Gibson obtained possession of the dead client's money after he had buried her quietly in Jersey City, N. J., by presenting a false power of attorney from some one who posed as Mrs. Szabo's mother, the prosecution claiming that the mother had been dead for two years. District Attorney J. D. Wilson, Jr., appeared for the state, and Henry Kohl, a local lawyer, was assigned by Judge Arthur S. Tompkins as Gibson's attorney. Robert Elder of New York, who represented Gibson at the first trial, having withdrawn except in an advisory capacity.

WITH THE FRATERNITIES

Oberlin Defeats High-lands at Quoits

Court Merrimack, No. 11, F. of A. met last night in Grafton hall with Chief Ranger G. R. O'Neill in the chair. Delegates John McFadyen, George R. O'Neill, R. Townsend, John W. Sharkey and Owen O'Neill, who attended the grand court convention last week, gave a very interesting account of the session. Their reports showed the grand court to be in a fine condition. At the convention several important amendments and resolutions were before the court and acted upon. Lowell was honored by the grand chief ranger, as in his appointments three delegates and three alternates of this city were appointed to attend the supreme convention to be held in Atlantic City. The delegates from this city will be: Dennis J. Murphy of Court General Dimon, James J. Gallagher and John W. Sharkey of Court Merrimack. The members of the court paid a solemn tribute to their late brother and treasurer, Denis O'Brien, by standing in silence for a period of one minute.

Members are now looking forward to the grand court convention to be held in Boston in 1914.

Oberlin Lodge Won

The Oberlin lodge, No. 25, I. O. O. F., held a regular meeting in Odd Fellows temple last night, and the feature of the evening was a quail game between the members of Oberlin lodge and the Highland Veritas lodge. Considerable routine business was transacted during the early part of the evening.

The quail game was easily won by the Oberlin lodge, the score being 123 to 66. This is the fourth game the Oberlin lodge has won. The Highland Veritas lodge twice. The individual scores were as follows:

Highland Veritas—H. C. Moore, 15; M. H. Sawyer, 16; I. H. McLean, 14; W. E. Beach, 10; B. W. Walker, 8; R. B. Joslin, 3.

Oberlin—C. W. Resander, 24; I. G. Frook, 4; George Desborge, 18; W. A. Porter, 18; Edw. Desborge, 21; W. B. Maynard, 28.

Daughters of St. George

The Daughters of St. George held their regular meeting in Odd Fellows temple last night with a large number of members present. The regular monthly business was transacted and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

WHITE HOUSE MINT PATCH

Object of Much Interest to Visitors

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The White House mint patch referred to by Col. Roosevelt in his testimony in the trial suit he is pressing at Marquette, Mich., promises to become as much an object of interest to capital visitors as the Washington monument. Already tourists are asking the White House police to point out the bed that gave up its fragrant leaves for Col. Roosevelt's occasional slumbers. The bed, 15 by 4 feet, is situated in a lattice work used by the White House laundress to dry clothes. Although mint always has been within easy reach of the White House porch, the present patch was established by President McKinley. President Taft seldom used it although it furnished his part to many a refreshing julep served to Mr. Taft's callers. President Wilson also uses it for garnishing spring lamb.

ANNUAL MILITARY MASS

Of O. M. I. Cadets at Immaculate Sunday

The annual military mass of the O. M. I. Cadets will be sung at the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. The young soldiers invite all their friends to attend the service. This is one of the most important duties that the organization performs, and elaborate preparations are being made under the direction of the chaplain, Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I. In past years the church has been taxed to its capacity at the military services, and plans to accommodate a large number are being carried out for the exercises on Sunday. The church will be decorated for the occasion and a special musical program will be rendered.

The cadets will meet tonight, tomorrow and Friday evenings to complete arrangements for the special service.

SPED AWAY AFTER KILLING BOY

Touring Car Ran Down 7 Year Old Lad—Driver of Machine Did Not Stop

BOSTON, May 26.—While the police of Greater Boston are searching for the driver of a large black touring car, seven-year-old Louis Sobell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sobell of 25 Browning avenue, Dorchester, lies dead at the City hospital.

The child was run down by a motorist on Talbot avenue, near Browning, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and left dying in the roadway while the driver of the auto sped away toward Milton before anyone could read the license number.

The boy, unconscious, was carried to the office of Dr. Frederick C. Hemenon at 9 Standish street, near by. Examination showed that the child had been fatally injured.

A police ambulance with all haste carried the dying boy to City hospital. It was soon seen that there was not a chance for recovery. With his mother and father by his bedside, he died shortly before 10 o'clock.

The killing of the boy, say the Dorchester police, was most brutal. According to eye witnesses the automobile was traveling more than 25 miles an hour when it hit the boy, and no attempt was made by the chauffeur to stop. Instead, he made off with all speed and without looking back to see what damage he had done.

FIRST LADY OF CANADA

Mrs. Harcourt's Position May be Raised

LONDON, MAY 28.—Mrs. Lewis Harcourt, niece of the late J. P. Morgan, may become a member of the

MRS. LEWIS HARCOURT

English nobility if her husband is appointed governor-general of Canada. There is a report that his name has been considered by the king in case the Duke of Connaught does not return to the dominion. Harcourt has long been friendly with King George. He is a popular member of the house of commons. Mrs. Harcourt's friends hope that her husband will get the place and that he will then be raised to the peerage.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

At Funeral of Auguste H. Jean Today

The remains of the late Auguste H. Jean, former overseer at the Lawrence Mfg. Co., were consigned to their last resting place this morning in the Catholic cemetery after imposing service at St. Joseph's church. The church in Lee street was literally filled with friends of deceased who wished to pay him a last tribute. There was a very large delegation of employees from the Lawrence hosiery, where deceased had been employed for nearly forty years, among them being the agent, Everett H. Walker, who yesterday gave orders to the overseers of the plant to allow everybody who wanted to attend the funeral to do so.

The funeral cortege left the home of deceased, 755 Moody street, and proceeded by a barouche filled with beautiful flowers, gifts from the agent, superintendents, overseers and other employees of the Lawrence hosiery, wended its way to the church, where at 9 o'clock solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Armand Baron, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Joseph M. Blais, O. M. I., as sub-deacon.

The choir, under the direction of Telephore Malo, rendered Berceau's harmonized mass, the solos being sustained by Dr. George E. Caisse, J. E. Vollet, Henri Wellbrenner, Jules Morissette and E. J. Laroche. At the offertory Mr. Ernest J. Dupont sang "Inno Missa," and at the communion Homer L. P. Turcotte rendered Rosewig's "O Meritum Passionis." Mrs. Jo-

PIMPLES COVERED FACE AND FOREHEAD

Would Fester and Come to Head. Itching and Burning Intense. Scratched and Made Sores. Face Disfigured. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face Clear.

24 Cunningham St., Roxbury, Mass.—"I was bothered with pimples for more than two years. My face and forehead were covered with them. The pimples were red and would fester and come to a white head with matter. The itching and burning were so intense that I scratched and made sores all over my face and could not sleep from irritation. They would make my face sore, itchy and disfigured."

"I tried creams and all kinds of remedies with no effect. I washed my face with hot water and Cuticura Soap and put on Cuticura Ointment and let it stay on for five minutes. Then I washed it off with Cuticura Soap. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment my face was clear from pimples." (Signed) Samuel Motel, June 10, 1912.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent washings with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, afford a most effective and economical treatment. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Joseph A. Bernard presided at the organ.

The bearers were: J. F. Morin and N. L. Guinette, both of Lawrence; F. H. Masse of Manchester, N. H.; Joseph T. Boule of Woonsocket, R. I.; Paul Vigeant and Joseph Richard, both of Lowell; Cercle d'Youville, of which deceased was the founder was represented by Mrs. Anna de Lamotte, Miss Rose Dextra, Miss Eugenie Descheneaux and Miss Catherine Gill. The delegates from the Pawtucketville Social club were A. F. Dragon, Roderick Descheneaux, Joseph Sawyer and Thomas Moore. Seated in the sanctuary was Rev. Fr. Plasmans, S. M., pastor of St. Anne's church, Lawrence.

The delegation from the Third Order of St. Francis consisted of the following: J. U. Morin, Laurent Audette, Henri Daigle and Pierre M. Gervais. Burial took place in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery where the communal prayers were read at the grave by Rev. Joseph M. Blais, O. M. I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Amedee Archambault.

PROHIBIT SALE OF CURE

Official Says Friedmann's Vaccine Doesn't Cure

NEW YORK, May 28.—Dr. O'Connell, health officer of the port of New York, has put his official stamp of disapproval upon Friedmann's so-called "cure" for tuberculosis. He claims that the vaccine will not do what the German doctor claims it will, and he urges the prohibition of its sale and administration. The board of health took up the matter. Dr. Friedmann had the medical profession guessing with his alleged "cure," and his injections into patients in hospitals of this city and elsewhere were watched with keen interest not only by the medical profession but by tuberculosis patients the country over.

International Athletic Congress
NEW YORK, May 28.—The standardization of international athletics will be the object of an international athletic congress at Berlin in August and it is believed the recommendations of congress will have great weight with the international Olympic committee which meets in Berlin in June, 1914, to prepare the program for the meet of 1916.

The New Food-Drink INSTANT POSTUM

Is in thousands of homes where health is valued.

Former coffee users who have felt the pinch of indigestion, headache, heart disturbance, nervous irritation, etc., have written by the score, telling of remarkable benefits following the change from coffee to Instant Postum.

A level teaspoonful in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

"Thanks for the sample of Instant Postum sent me. I had been drinking coffee for a long time and thought it would be difficult to give it up, but I was mistaken."

"While I was drinking coffee I always felt exhausted and I weighed but 112 lbs. After using Instant Postum I soon recovered and now am as healthy as any person can be. I now weigh 120 lbs. and am steadily gaining in weight." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled).

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water.

Both kinds are sold by grocers everywhere.

MAJ. CROWLEY IS NOMINATED

For Postmaster of Lowell by President Wilson

Committeeman Coughlin Has Pull at Washington

Major Robert J. Crowley has been nominated by President Wilson for postmaster to succeed Joseph A. Legare, resigned.

The major's nomination went to the senate yesterday afternoon and it is expected that formal action will be taken within a few days. The appointment will go to the committee on post offices and post roads. It will then be referred to a sub-committee. The sub-committee will report back on the appointment to the general committee and the latter will then make its recommendations to the senate.

According to Senator Lodge, no particular opposition will be entered by republicans to the confirmation of any postmasters, and even opposition is expected only in cases where the republicans believe the nominees to be absolutely unqualified for the positions.

Coughlin the Power

The Washington correspondent to the Boston Herald, commenting on President Wilson's appointments, says:

A cruel blow was delivered today to the Boston city democracy, or that portion of it which has been combating mercilessly the efforts of Dr. John W. Coughlin of Fall River, national committeeman, to displace postal fruit from the trees of federal patronage. President Wilson gave to the senate the nomination of George F. Cooke, to be postmaster at Milford.

That tells the story, for Dr. Coughlin had championed Mr. Cooke and Representatives Curley and Murray and others had stood up for James Lally. It was true Lally weakened his cause by entering the lists, withdrawing and re-entering, but none the less issue was made against Dr. Coughlin and now Dr. Coughlin wins after the bitter fight on patronage in Massachusetts since Woodrow Wilson became president.

Dr. Coughlin took it very much to heart that Boston city delegates fought him at Baltimore. He told people so in deep confidence and that he thought the Boston city democrats were not doing as they ought to do. Now he has his revenge.

President Wilson sent three other Massachusetts nominations to the senate. They were for postmasters, as follows: Lowell, Robert J. Crowley, where Joseph Legare has recently resigned; North Brookfield, John Howe; and East Bridgewater, Thomas E. Luddy.

The Lowell office is one of the largest in the state, after Boston, and from the standpoint of salaries paid postmasters very desirable.

SHOE MACHINE CASE RESUMED

Right of Company to Restrict Use of Machines Questioned

Petition of Bill of Particulars Filed by Government

BOSTON, May 28.—The right of the United Shoe Machinery Co. to restrict the use of its machines when only a part of the machine was patented, was questioned by the government at the resumption of the dissolution proceedings in the United States district court today. The question arose on a petition for a bill of particulars filed by the government, requesting the nature of the patent relied on by the defense in its claim to restrict the use of its machinery.

James A. Fowler, representing the government, said that the patents on sewing machines had long since expired. Whatever patents remained were on appliances or certain devices, which he said the government would contend were not essential to the operating of the machine and did not affect its efficiency.

Judge Brown, who resumed his place on the bench after being absent yesterday, stated that the government's contention on that point would raise an interminable controversy. Whether a patent on a certain appliance or device covered only a part of the machine or the whole, was the source of practically all patent litigation and was too broad to be taken up in this case.

William Gregg, representing the government, said they would not go into any machine all of whose parts were patented. Because of some improvement, he said, the defendant had claimed the right to restrict the use of the entire machines in its leases.

"That has been exactly our experience here," said Judge Putnam. "Some men would come along with an improvement that would save half a cent in the manufacture of a pair of shoes and would shut out an honest manufacturer doing business."

The court, however, decided to consider the petition of the government as well as one from the defense, requesting the government to specify the threats and other unlawful practices on which the government relied.

"The government must have in mind," said Charles Choate, representing the defense, "certain specific cases of unfair practices to which I think the defense is entitled an opportunity to reply."

Judge Putnam stated that the time had expired for such requests but directed the filing of both petitions for bills of particulars.

Mr. Choate then resumed his cross-examination of Nelson Howard, regarding the nature of the patents acquired in the purchase of 55 subsidiary companies.

MORE NEW BOILERS

Are Being Installed in the Power House of the Appleton Mills by Competent Men

Two new 400 horse power boilers are being installed in the power house of the Appleton Mills. The boilers were unloaded from the cars in Jackson street yesterday and the job of removing them was watched by at least 200 people. For men who did not understand the work it would have been an impossible job, but the men who were handling the boilers understood the work and they handled them almost as readily as the trained handler of baggage handles a drummer's trunks. And, it might be remarked in passing, that the installation of new boilers does not spell "tariff scare."

LOWELL TEXTILE SCHOOL BILLS

Aggregating $73,000 Have Been Signed by Governor Foss

Governor Foss has attached his signature to the two Lowell Textile school bills. One of the bills calls for $25,000 for maintenance up to June, 1913 and the other for $48,000 for maintenance up to June, 1914. The bills went to the governor on Saturday and the Lowell delegation have been anxious to know what he would do with them. His Excellency vetoed the bills last year and at least one Lowell member of the legislature thought the governor would neither sign nor veto the bills, but would allow them to become law by remaining five days in the executive chamber.

Mr. Cummeok visited the governor relative to the bills and his Excellency said he would gladly sign the bills for the Lowell school as he regarded it an important institution, fully efficient in every way and doing good work. He did not have such a good opinion of the other textile schools.

THE FISH AND GAME CLUB

New Association Held Second Meeting Last Night

New Members Were Elected and By-laws Adopted

The Lowell Fish and Game Association met last night in Odd Fellows building, Middlesex street, and passed upon by-laws formulated by the executive committee. It was the second meeting of the association and President Lucius A. Derby was in the chair.

The Lowell Fish and Game association has given a great many people great big surprise. When Willis Holt, who is a member of the state league, first suggested the formation of an association in this city, quite a number of men whom he thought were interested in the three "f's," "funs, feathers and fun," allowed that it would be pretty hard to get a "bunch" together in Lowell as most of the Lowell gunners and anglers are lone hunters and fishermen. Mr. Holt, however, believed that the local lovers of woods and streams would take an active interest in an organization that would make for better gaming and fishing. That Mr. Holt had the right idea was evidenced at the first meeting of the society when 96 men passed their dollar bills over the plate and became members of the association.

There was a good attendance at last night's meeting and about 30 new members were elected. The by-laws were gone over article by article and, in some instances, section by section. This gave opportunity for the offering of suggestions and by the time all of the articles had been gone through with, the members present were well satisfied with the by-laws.

Mention was made of "age limit" and it seemed the consensus of opinion that "the cradle and the grave" would do all right for the age limit. The president said he had a boy 12 years old and he would like to have him become a member. "Pass over the dollar," said Secretary Wm. McCarthy, and Mr. Derby came across with the long green. Mr. Derby believes it is a good thing to interest boys in fishing and hunting and part of the education, he says, is the protection of the song birds. He thinks that a boy properly educated along this line will be of great assistance to the wardens. "They will carry on the good work," he said, "after we are dead and gone." Mr. Derby is a pretty good fisherman but he says he shan't have anything on his twelve-year-old son.

One of the important matters discussed at last night's meeting had to do with the farmer's right to put up "no trespassing" signs on brooks that had been stocked by the state. This seems to be a much mooted question among fishermen, and ex-Deputy Commissioner Harry Gonzalez said he was unable to find out anything definite about it, even at the state house. President Derby said that the executive committee would get busy and would go into the matter thoroughly before the next meeting. The meeting was productive of some discussion that was both interesting and instructive.

FOREST FIRES

Postoffice Department Instructs Rural Carriers to Report All Fires Detected Along Their Routes

The official Postal Guide for May calls the attention of postmasters and rural carriers to an order of the post office department, that the carriers report to the proper authorities all forest fires detected along their routes. This order was issued at the request of the secretary of agriculture.

the country a sort of informal understanding has existed between national forest rangers and rail carriers with the idea of securing increased fire protection. The marked effectiveness of this co-operation was a strong argument in favor of its extension and official sanction, and was in part responsible for the request of the secretary of agriculture which resulted in the order by the postoffice department.

The plan is for the carrier to report a fire to the nearest forest officer on his route, or, if no officer lives on the route, to have him notified by some responsible citizen. State and national foresters are supplied with post road maps and with postal guides containing the addresses of the different postmasters. The postmasters in turn supply the carriers with the names, addresses and telephone call numbers of forest officers residing on or near the carriers' routes.

Co-operation between rural carriers and federal forest officers will take place in Florida, Arkansas, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. Cooperation with state officers is given in all the New England States, and in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, and California, all these states having established fire protective systems.

Although in uniform and all ready to play, the Lowell players were denied a chance for revenge yesterday upon the Worcester club for its defeat of the day before. The rain began to come down in a steady stream shortly after 2 o'clock and the game had to be called off. Worcester here tomorrow as well as today.

The starting for the five mile run, which is to be held by the Lowell Athletic club Friday at its field day, have been closed and the classified distance men of the city have all been entered. Carr, Flory, Christo and Goddard will make a pretty race with the lesser known runners also in the race. It would be surprising if some one outside of this quartet ran away with the event.

After putting up the greatest diamond exhibition ever given by a Yale team, the New Haven college was defeated yesterday by Williams, 2 to 0. In straight victories, all of them against teams in their own class, is some record.

The ring for the boxing exhibitions Friday at Spaulding park will be set up directly in front of the grand stand and a few feet inside of home plate. The ring and boxers can be seen from any seat in the grand stand or bleachers.

That was some battle between Christy Mathewson and George Tyler yesterday. The ex-Lowell twirler pitched a great game and is deserving of the victory over his famous opponent. Another ex-New England leaguer also was right there in the limelight with his bingle in the ninth and finally brought home the winning run for the Braves.

If Monahan had been a little more circumspect it is highly probable that he would have scored in the ninth inning of Monday's contest. McCune, the Worcester catcher, had the plate completely blocked off, and if Monahan had slid into him first he would surely have spiked him. We wonder what McCune would do under the same circumstances.

That was some game Monday between the Dartmouth Freshmen and Dean academy. The Green freshmen won out in the ninth inning when they batted in six runs. The final score was 13 to 14 and there were 36 hits made in the game for a total of 49. A regular pitcher's battle, not!

Joe Donahue, Dartmouth's second baseman, and "Big" Bennett, captain of last fall's Big Green team and now playing first base at this office before leaving for Boston this morning, where they play Harvard this afternoon. Joe's arm is still lame and stiff from the severe wrench it received a few weeks ago while in practice but he will probably climb into a uniform for today's game. Both men have already been offered big league contracts.

and this should prove a dandy attraction. In the semi-finals, Joe Morgan of Manchester and Gus Lenny of South Boston will be the principals, while in the preliminary Gardner Branks and Jerry Lucette will shake hands.

STRONG TEAMS TO CLASH

Burkes and South Ends
Play Memorial Day

Nixey Doughtin and Walter Lyons, managers of the Burkes and South Ends respectively have picked their teams for the big game at the field day to be held at Spaulding park Friday afternoon, under the auspices of the Lowell Athletic club. The two leaders had their men out on the diamond last night for practice and both are confident that their team will come out on the long end. The Burkes will be represented by the following players: Jimmy Grant, Ed Cavley, Paul Clark, Buckley, Cushman, Curry, Sharkey, Doole and Ganley. The South Ends will be represented by the following players: Harry Grant, Ed Cavley, Paul Clark, Buckley, Cushman, Curry, Sharkey, Doole and Ganley. The game will be played at 2 o'clock and will be one of the most interesting of the season. The Burkes are expected to be in the running for the championship and the South Ends are expected to be in the running for the championship.

BRAVES WIN TWO GAMES

Take Doubleheader from Giants—Tyler Stars

The Braves annexed two games yesterday afternoon at the expense of the New York Giants, the first going to Tyler outpitched the veteran Mathewson in the first game, letting New York down with only four safe hits. Boston won the game when she scored her lone tally in the ninth inning on a single by Maranville, Meyers' sacrifice. Connolly's single and Sweeney's safety to right. Maranville was thrown out at the plate when he tried to score on Connolly's hit. Connolly going to second on the throw in. Sweeney dropped his bat in front of home plate as he was on his way to first and the ball hit his hat when Burns threw in from right field to catch Connolly. Rudolph, who went in for Perdue in the second inning, was the principal figure in Boston's second win, his pitching holding the Giants powerless when hits meant runs. Thus doubled with three men in the sixth, scoring three runs for the Braves.

Lowell Second Baseman

Also Improves in Fielding

Eddie Miller, Lowell second sacker, is attracting more attention this year around the circuit than ever before. In fact he is far more deserving of notice this season than last on account of his ability with the bat which he is demonstrating to the fans at every contest in which he covers the pivotal position. His holding last year was the smoothest in the entire league with no exceptions, and he covers more ground than any man playing the infield in the New England league.

Miller is 5 feet in height, weighs 172 pounds, and is as hard as rock. He has the ideal build for a ball player, tall, rangy and possessed of enough physical stamina to withstand the strain of a hard grueling season.

This player has hit so far this season for nearly 400 and the beauty of his hitting is that it is usually timely. No harder batter faced a pitcher in a pinch in the eight clubs of the league than this same Ed Miller. He is a good waller and absolutely refuses to go after a bad one. Whenever he strikes at a ball it is certain that the umpire had his mouth all set to call it a strike. This is the type of player that the big leagues are watching for, and it would not be surprising if Miller were snapped up at the conclusion of this league's season.

Outing of U. S. Bunting Employees
Memorial day will witness the third annual outing of the United States Bunting Co. employees at Sullivan's grove, Wamecet. A fine program of sports has been mapped out, including a baseball game between the newly reorganized "Hustlers" and the Bunting employees. The "Hustlers" have a well balanced team and it remains to be seen if the hard hitting Bunting willows will upset their equilibrium. The teams will play for a purse of money as an extra incentive to produce the real baseball goods. The lineup is as follows:

Hustlers Bunting Employees
D. Trainer cf of D. Coleman
M. O'Loughlin of H. J. Mullin
Bob Gourlay lf (capt) of G. Evans
Leo Carr ss ss H. Jepson

J. Sullivan, J. Lord, T. Dwyer, utility, J. Tobin, utility Umpires: Leon Wiggin, Albert G. Sweden.

The game will be followed by a 100 yard dash, hop, step and jump, and a half mile race. Suitable prizes will be awarded.

Refreshments will be served throughout the day, and nothing that would add to the enjoyment of all has been omitted. Arrangements have been completed under the supervision of that erstwhile devotee of fastness, John Calm.

EAGAN DEFEATS KENNEDY

Gallant and McGovern
Also Won

BOSTON, May 28.—An eleven hour substitution was made for one of the 10-round all-star bouts at the Atlas A. A. last night in the person of One Round Hogan of California. He went up against Johnny Gallant in place of K. O. Sweeney and met defeat.
Joe Eagan defeated Steve Kennedy, the Lawrence light-weight, in another 10-round bout, after a fast and aggressive contest, in which both boxers displayed an unusual amount of skill and speed.

A sixing bout of 10 rounds to a draw resulted in the meeting between Phil McGovern, a brother of the famous Terrible Teddy, and Johnny Munnice of Charlestown. This contest was replete with action.
In the opening match Patsy Greene, the clever ex-amateur, made his initial bow in the professional ranks against Young Bouches of Woonsocket and won the decision after six rounds of clever boxing.

AMERICAN PLAYERS

Made Good Showing in the Second and Third Rounds of the Amateur Golf Championship Tournament

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 28.—The American players did well yesterday in the second and third rounds of the amateur golf championship tournament. Harold Wolter of Toledo, O., beat Shepard of the Wesley club by three up and one to play and in the third round defeated J. F. Myles of the Royal and Ancient club by three up and two to play.

W. Heinrich Schmidt of Worcester, Mass., beat Captain Burr of the Royal North Devon club by six up and five to play, and later defeated Lassen of Lytham and St. Anne's, one of the strongest players in the north of England, by three up and two to play.

Boys' Brigade Entertained
Enjoyable Evening at First Trinitarian Church Where Campfire Night Was Held—Boys' Club Master's Assisted

The Boys' Brigade of the First Trinitarian church conducted a campfire entertainment last evening which was attended by a good sized audience. They were assisted in the entertainment by the Pawtucket Boys' club members who furnished immeasurable fun. One of the funniest events of the evening was the drill of the awkward squad by the officers of the boys' brigade after which the same young men gave a real exhibition drill that won them hearty applause. The soloists of the evening were Mrs. E. L. Roberts and Miss Florence Cutting gave readings. There were violin solos by Fred Mulgrave accompanied by Miss Esther Mulgrave. D. V. Lockford was in general charge of the affair.

FIGHT PROMOTERS HELD

Burns Files Suit for Criminal Libel

CALGARY, Alberta, May 28.—William McCarty, Tommy Burns and Ed Smith, three of the persons most active in the staging of the Arthur Peck-Luther McCarty fight which resulted in the death of the latter in the ring at the Burns arena Saturday, were arrested late yesterday, charged with manslaughter. After the preliminary hearing each was released in $10,000 bail.

Peck, who was re-arrested after the verdict of the coroner's jury which exonerated all principals in the contest, was given a brief preliminary hearing last night. He entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of manslaughter. One of the developments of the day was the suit for criminal libel filed by Burns against Rev. J. C. Secamore of the First Baptist church, who is said to have stated in the pulpit on Sunday that the Saturday affair was murder, pure and simple, and that those promoting the contest should be deported.

LOWELL CHORAL SOCIETY
Meeting of Officers Held Last Night at Annual Meeting—Conductor and Pianist Re-elected

The members of the Lowell Choral society held their annual meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall last night, and transacted considerable business. Treasurer Samuel Kershaw announced that the society had a balance on hand after all bills paid of $509.64, with a little more coming. The profit on the first concert this year was $41.10 and on the second $255.99.

Conductor Eubank G. Hood and Pianist Wilfred Kershaw were unanimously re-elected for next year's work. The officers of the society for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: President, Arthur C. Spaulding; vice president, Walter Bruce; treasurer, Samuel Kershaw; secretary, Harry Stocks; executive committee, Thomas P. Boulier, Dr. Walter E. Knapp, M. M. Charlton, Miss Wilfred Kershaw, Mrs. L. J. Hanson, George S. Drew, David Bird, Mrs. Frank W. Hurd, Miss Katherine Jeannotte, Miss Margaret M. Sperry, Mrs. J. D. Willman, Miss Mary P. Reilly, Miss Anna E. Out-of-State Label Measure Up to Foss

BOSTON, May 28.—The Meany bill which provides for the placing of labels upon milk which is brought from without the state was again passed to be engrossed in the senate yesterday, this time by a vote of 23 to 12.

A sharp debate bristling with personal allusions attended the passage of the bill. When the bill came up Senator Blanchard who is fighting it, moved reconsideration of the previous vote whereby the senate had ordered the bill to be engrossed.

He then offered an amendment to make the bill take effect Jan. 1, 1914, and the amendment was adopted.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

You Can Buy Tuxedo Everywhere

Convenient pouch, innerlined with moisture-proof paper - 5c
Famous green tin, with gold lettering, curved to fit pocket - 10c

Tuxedo is the original granulated Burley Tobacco, and has been more widely imitated than any other high-grade tobacco in the world. Thousands of America's most famous men have found that smoking Tuxedo affords them complete relaxation, soothing comfort, and healthful enjoyment. And every man who tries Tuxedo will find the same desirable qualities in this pure, mild, delightful tobacco.

"PAT" McDONALD

"Pat" McDonald, the big New York Policeman who won the 16th shot put, "best hand," at the Olympic Games, last summer, says:
"A pipeful of Tuxedo for mine. It's the best tobacco ever. I actually feel stronger after a smoke session with Tuxedo."

Pat McDonald

You can smoke Tuxedo, no matter how many other pipe-tobaccos you have tried and had to give up—for Tuxedo does not irritate the most sensitive mouth, throat or nose—in fact, many public speakers and singers find that smoking Tuxedo has a soothing, helpful influence on their throats.

Tuxedo is made from the very best, selected Burley tobacco grown in Kentucky—carefully ripened, cured and aged until it is perfectly mild and mellow. Then treated by the famous "Tuxedo Process" that removes the last trace of "bite" and bitterness, and develops the wonderful fragrance and flavor of the Burley leaf. Tuxedo has many imitators in the tin—but as long as the secrets of the "Tuxedo Process" remain undiscovered, it will have no equal in the pipe or cigarette.

JOEL HILLMAN

Joel Hillman, proprietor of the famous "Harvey's" restaurant at Washington, says:
"Tuxedo is a good, wholesome tobacco, with a mildness and fragrance all its own. It adds many degrees to my pipe pleasure."

Joel Hillman

FREE

This Free Watch Fob offer is made to induce more men to try Tuxedo. Because every man who gives Tuxedo a week's trial will find at the end of that time, he has had the most enjoyable and beneficial smoke-week of his life! Why not get that Free Watch Fob today!

GEO. CURRY

Geo. Curry, ex-Governor, and ex-Congressman from New Mexico, says:
"Tuxedo appeals to me strongly on account of its cool, mild, pleasant flavor. Therein lies its superiority to all other tobaccos."

Geo Curry

HENRY STUCKART

Henry Stuckart, City Treasurer of Chicago, says:
"I regard Tuxedo as not only absolutely harmless, but genuinely beneficial. Tuxedo goes in my pipe always."

Henry Stuckart

WALTER WELLMAN

Walter Wellman, famous journalist, explorer and aviator, says:
"In the Arctic regions, through weary days in camp at Spitzbergen, or sailing 1,000 miles over the Atlantic in the ship America, my favorite tobacco has always been Tuxedo."

Walter Wellman

GARRETT P. SERVISS

Garrett P. Serviss, prominent scientist and writer, author of "The Second Degree," etc., says:
"I have tried many brands of tobacco, good, bad and indifferent, before alighting upon Tuxedo, the ideal smoke."

Garrett P. Serviss

JOHN J. MCGRAW

John J. McGraw, famous manager of the New York Giants, champion of the National League, says:
"Tuxedo gives to my pipe smoking a keen enjoyment that I have experienced with no other tobacco. Supreme in mildness and fragrance is Tuxedo."

John J. McGraw

HENRY REUTERDAHL

Henry Reuterdahl, famous naval artist, and expert on naval construction, says:
"You're got to smoke while painting out of doors in winter—it helps you to keep warm. And a pipeful of pure, mild Tuxedo tobacco makes one forget the cold, and the paint flows more freely."

Henry Reuterdahl

SCHOOL BOARD IS DIVIDED

On Matter of Manual Training for Grammar Grades

Woodwork and Cooking for Bartlett and
Butler

At the regular meeting of the school committee held, last night, the recommendation of Supt. Molloy for the establishing of manual training and cooking classes in the Bartlett and Butler grammar schools was taken up. It is proposed to begin the work at the opening of the fall term, and according to the recommendation it is not intended, for the present, at least, to put in any special teachers of cooking or manual training. Mr. Farrington moved that the matter be laid on the table till the next meeting and the motion was seconded by Dr. Bagley. The motion was defeated and Mr. Thompson then moved that cooking and manual training, as suggested by the superintendent, be established in the Bartlett and Butler schools, the details to be worked out later. Mr. Campbell seconded the motion. It is understood that wood work will be provided for the boys and cooking for the girls.

Mr. Farrington was opposed. He said he wanted time to look into a proposition that required the expenditure of from $1500 to $2000. Dr. Bagley, too, was opposed. They said the proposition was new to them, but Mr. Molloy said he had mentioned it to them. Dr. Bagley said he had no recollection of Mr. Molloy mentioning the matter to him and Mr. Farrington said that Mr. Molloy had not mentioned it to him until yesterday, and then only after he had asked Mr. Molloy about it. The motion was put and carried. Messrs. Bagley and Farrington voted "no."

It was voted to permit the use of the high school hall for the industrial school graduation, June 23.

The rule for selection of judges for the high school girls' competitive drill was changed, on recommendation of the superintendent, who said it was at the suggestion of the principal of the high school.

The rule provided that the judges be the teacher in charge, and two other teachers, to be selected by the superintendent of schools. As changed, the judges are to be three teachers actively engaged in the teaching of calisthenics, these judges to be selected by the superintendent, and the chairman of the high school committee.

Mr. Bagley moved that manual training and cooking be introduced in the Colburn school, and in every other grammar school in the city, where it is possible.

Mr. Campbell asked about the appropriation, and how much money it would take to do this. Mr. Molloy said, from $7500 to $13,000.

Mr. Farrington said if it could not be afforded in all the schools, it could not be afforded for the Butler and Bartlett.

The chairman explained that the two schools were selected because it would require a smaller expenditure of money to begin there, as these schools have suitable rooms.

Mr. Farrington offered an amendment, which was seconded by Dr. Bagley, that if manual training and cooking are established in the schools, attending the classes be given to children of all the schools. The motion was put and carried. Dr. Lambert and Mr. Thompson voted "no."

Miss Helen S. Livingstone was elected a kindergarten teacher. Miss Livingstone has been employed, heretofore, as a temporary teacher.

Resolutions were adopted in memory of Miss Etta G. Hurst and Dr. Merritt Long of the school staff, recently deceased.

The superintendent read several applications for positions as teachers in the high school. These were referred to the committee on teachers.

The superintendent reported the opening of kindergartens in the Howard street and Lakeview avenue schools, in accordance with the vote passed at the April meeting. His report on transfer of teachers was approved.

It was voted that janitors hereafter be required to report requisitions for repairs to the supervisor of janitors, instead of to the lands and buildings department as heretofore. This was in accordance with the recommendation of the superintendent.

The committee on the committee on text books read a list of recommendations given by the committee of grammar masters appointed for that purpose, and approved by the superintendent in his report. He also gave notice of a change in penmanship to be acted upon at the next meeting. In this connection, the superintendent had recommended the Palmer system taught in the Normal school.

Acting on the petition for the opening of a second grade room in the Washington school, it was voted to refer the matter to the superintendent. Adjourned.

SAVING THE TREES
Park Commissioner Henry F. Carr Says They Must Be Protected and Sends Letter to T. & T. Co.

The following letter from Park Commissioner Carr to the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. is self explanatory:

May 27th,
New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., Lowell, Mass.

Gentlemen—At a meeting of the committee on trees of the park commission, held recently, it was decided to request you to send a representative of your company to the next meeting to be held on Tuesday afternoon, June 3, 1913, at 4 o'clock, at the park commissioner's office, city hall.

He must be prepared to show cause for putting arms, brackets, etc., upon the trees, and from whom he received permission to use the trees for this purpose. This committee is responsible for the trees and they feel that these arms, brackets, etc., are injuring them. Very truly yours,

Henry F. Carr,
Chairman of Committee on Trees.

GOV. FOSS ON THE WARPATH

Denounces Legislature for Favoring Tax Dodgers—Criticizes the Washburn Bill

BOSTON, May 28.—Gov. Foss sent to the legislature yesterday one of the most scathing messages of his administration.

He castigated the legislature for its failure to pass any legislation aiming toward increasing state revenue.

He denounced alleged tax dodging beneficiaries in cities and towns who present libraries and schools and fail to pay their just share of taxes.

He condemned anew and specifically the financial sections of the Washburn railroad bill which allows for the issue of other than mortgage bonds, and he also said his complaints to the stock and bond issue bill, recently vetoed, which, it is hinted, is due to go over his veto, alleging further that this was simply a new means of evading taxation.

He condemned the failure to forward tax reform and set forth that "in its continued failure to enact remedial legislation the general court has neglected public business of the gravest importance."

He admitted that a state tax of $3,000,000 was imminent and that the increase in state debt, direct and contingent, was also out of bounds, and then closed with several specific recommendations as follows:

The drafting and approval of a constitutional amendment which will make it possible for the general court to establish kinds and methods of taxation which are now beyond its power to enact.

That there will be immediately enacted laws that will give to the tax commissioner the power he needs for the impartial administration of the laws committed to him and of other laws which shall secure by the local assessment a fuller assessment of all classes of taxable property.

To Prevent Injustice
To decrease the injustice as between towns occasioned by the large state tax as now imposed.

COOL ECZEMA'S FEVER
Crying out for relief from the itching, burning, eruptions, itchy skin, and every other skin trouble, try this simple remedy.

TOILETINE
Soothes and Heals
It allays inflammation, reduces heat, gives rest and refreshment. Try it. Get a big bottle at your druggist's for 25c.

Get your money back if it fails to satisfy you. For 15 years this ointment has been used by thousands of people. It is the TOILETINE COMPANY 154 Hope Street, Greenfield, Mass.

I suggest the immediate passage of legislation which shall cause the commonwealth to retain the franchise taxes paid in this and succeeding years by the railroads, telephone and telegraph companies, trust companies and gas and electric light companies. In these directions lies the duty for the permanent benefit of which the people have sent their representatives. Private interests with their selfish desires may wait, but the public weal ought not to be further postponed.

Attacks Washburn Bill
In the message he said: "Last week the house rejected a constitutional amendment under which the general court could have done much for the improvement of our tax system. And at the same time the legislature is seriously considering the matter of changing our policy with reference to the capitalization of certain classes of corporations in such a way that our public revenues may be seriously depleted."

"Indeed, one such measure has been already enacted and has been vetoed. These measures it is proposed to allow the corporations to finance themselves by issuing increased amounts of bonds so that the relationship of bonds to stock shall be at two to one. So far as I am aware the effect of such legislation upon the matter of the taxes to be paid by these corporations has received no consideration. And yet the two matters are closely related."

"With reference to public service corporations it is true that only a part of their taxable property is taxed by the municipalities. In which it is situated."

"But in no case is the municipality empowered to tax the corporation for its valuable franchise. This is as it should be. I do not suggest that the municipalities should be given power to tax franchises. These franchises have been and should continue to be taxed by the commonwealth herself."

Belldholders Dodge Taxation
"The method by which they have been taxed for nearly 50 years is called corporate excess taxation. The full value of the outstanding stock has been the measure of the assessment; each part of the value as has not been taxed by the municipalities under their limited powers has been taxed by the commonwealth."

"The bonds of the corporation from which have been derived perhaps 50 per cent. of the capital of the corporation have not been considered in the determination of the value of the corporate franchise but have been taxable as personal property of the bondholders."

"Now it is proposed, however, to allow the corporations to secure increased proportions of their capital by the issuance of other than mortgage bonds belonging to that class of securities which cannot or will not be taxed. The proceeds of these bonds will be invested largely in properties or valuable franchises in this commonwealth. The amounts are expected to be many millions."

"The properties thus acquired will be largely exempt from taxation by the towns, and since the stock of the corporations will not have been increased it will be impossible for the state to tax these values in the taxation of the franchise. In fact, since the bonds are a security senior to the stock, it may be reasonably expected that the present outstanding stock of at least some of the corporations will actually fall in value upon the issuance of more bonds."

Neglects Public Business
"The significance of this fact cannot be overestimated. While apparently it has not been considered by the general court, he would be rash, indeed, who hazarded the opinion that its full meaning had escaped the attention of the beneficiaries of this proposed legislation."

The general court has neglected public business of the gravest importance. Evidence is accumulating that in devising this new method of corporate capitalization, the general court has been devoting itself to the interests and cunningly devised plans of certain enterprises which have already flaunted the authority of the commonwealth and are now planning to escape just contribution to her treasury.

State Tax $5,000,000
Gov. Foss called attention to the increase in state debt and state taxes. In a period of seven years and four months he sets forth the net state direct and contingent has increased $10,253,517.

One of the sharpest portions of the message related to tax dodgers and their communities. The governor in this connection said: "Cases are not infrequent where by the gift of a school or library a family of wealth has practically bought tax exemption and has secured a reputation for liberality—a reputation bought and paid for by those whose property has been fully assessed."

After being read by the clerk of the house, the message was referred to the committee on taxation.

ed upon the scene. The officers also found a bed on the floor and being rapidly consumed by the flames. Defendant asserted to the court that he was smoking a pipe and that his wife had knocked the pipe out of his mouth, the coals from which set the blaze. Judge Enright took the case under advisement and ordered continued until next Saturday in order to find a suitable home for the defendant's children.

Paid For Free Ride
William Cadagan, a young man who gave his nativity as Baltimore, Md., pleaded guilty to the charge of evading carfare. He was taken from a train last night by Officer Drevett at the request of the conductor from the forward platform of the baggage car, commonly termed the "blind baggage."

He said this morning that he had been working in Maine and had spent all of his money and could not pay his fare on to New York. He was fined $5 for his free ride.

Cornelius F. Buckley was in the dock charged with the non-support of his wife and minor child. His wife was the first witness called to the stand and she informed Judge Enright that her husband had only given her ten dollars toward the support of her child and herself since the first of the year. She further stated that he would not get up the morning in time for work and that he wouldn't keep a job when he got one. The defendant allowed that he couldn't get work. He was given a suspended sentence of four months to the house of correction.

George W. Morrison, through his attorney, Jackson Palmer, Esq., pleaded nolo contendere to the charge of violating the laws which govern the operation of automobiles. The court accepted Mr. Palmer's plea and the defendant settled the costs of his trial, $120.

Katherine Locape, charged with assault and battery, had her case continued until Thursday. The alleged assault and battery occurred in Chelmsford. The case of Delia Rainville, charged with assault and battery upon some person whose identity is unknown, was placed on file. Daniel J. Donahue, Esq., appeared for the defendant.

William D. Carroll and Mary Whitely were each fined $5 for their second arrest for drunkenness within the current year. They were also four releases by Probation Officer Slattery.

its victims, such as by lecturing, collecting, holding sales of so-called Dayton flood damaged goods. The letter is reprinted below.

Dayton Chamber of Commerce, Dayton, Ohio, May 24, 1913.
Dear Sir: Be on the lookout for nature fakirs in this instance, to refer to the flood. There are two classes:

"Flood sales": No doubt there will be conducted in your city, so-called "Flood Sales"—"So many dollars' worth of Dayton salvage stock at such much off on the dollar." There has been some flood stock salvaged, but not as much as some would have you believe. Kindly advise us at once in regard to any cases of this kind, giving us:

The name of the firm offering the goods.
The amount or value of same.
Name of Dayton firm whose goods are offered for sale.

The Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce will do the rest.

Kindly inform us promptly concerning so-called "Dayton flood sufferers" giving stereotyped or moving picture lectures in the name of a sadly afflicted organization or society in Dayton.

There are doubtless other classes of fakirs; people with hard luck stories, etc. Our charities committee will give your "tip," its immediate consideration.

You will oblige us greatly by sending the above warning to the members of your organization. We are insistent that the good name of our city be protected. We feel this is for your protection as well.

By the time this communication reaches you, our citizens will have raised the sum of two million dollars, or thereabouts, to protect our city against the recurrence of any such disaster as visited us on March 25 and 26.

Thanking you for your co-operation, we are,
Very truly yours,
George B. Smith, President.

PROPOSALS FOR COAL

Sealed proposals addressed to the Middlesex county commissioners, and endorsed "Proposals for Coal," will be received by said Commissioners at the Court House, Cambridge, until Tuesday, the third day of June, 1913, at 10.15 o'clock a. m. for a supply of coal to be delivered as described below, and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

All bids must be upon blank forms to be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, and must give the prices proposed both in writing and in figures, and be signed by the bidder with his address.

Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars ($200), payable to the County of Middlesex, said check to be returned to the bidder unless he fails to execute a contract should it be awarded to him.

A bond will be required for the faithful performance of the contract in such sum as shall be fixed by the Commissioners after the bids are opened; said sum to be not less than one-fourth nor more than one-half of the amount of the contract.

All bids will be compared on the basis of the estimated quantities of coal needed which are as follows:

10 tons, more or less, of best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.
20 tons, more or less, best "Lackawanna Broken" or its equal, 2240 pounds to the ton.

COBB AGAIN SHOWING AMERICAN LEAGUE PLAYERS WHO'S WHO

DETROIT, May 28.—Ty Cobb is again on the warpath. The great Detroit outfielder is making things very unpleasant for opposing pitchers and fielders. He is leading his league in batting, and putting off some wonderful base running stunts. In a recent game with Washington Cobb's daring base running produced Detroit's only tally, the third run scored off Johnson this season. With one out in the seventh inning, Cobb beat out an infield hit and went to third when Gandil muffed Johnson's throw to catch Ty off first. As Johnson prepared to slide to Veatch Cobb streaked home and slid safely, around Ainsmith, who appeared to be waiting with the ball for the runner. A few days later he performed the same feat against Philadelphia. Cobb did not join his team until the season was a few weeks old. There was a little difference between President Navin and Cobb over salary. Finally it was settled. Ty started the season off very poorly, and during the series with New York he was forced to retire. It was given out that he had sore eyes. Some scribes stated that Ty's sun was beginning to set, but once more he has fooled them.

PITCHER JACK COOMBS OF THE ATHLETICS OUT OF GAME BY ILLNESS

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Jack Coombs, one of the star pitchers of the Philadelphia Athletics, may not be able to get into the game again this season. He became seriously ill about a month ago and is still quite sick, though his physician says he has passed the crisis. Coombs pitched the opening contest in Boston, but did not finish the game. Later he was sent home threatened with pneumonia. Coombs never fully recovered from his injury in the world's series in New York in 1911. On the return from the training trip this spring the Athletics were held up by floods, and Coombs ate some bad food, which resulted in a mild form of ptomaine poisoning. On top of this he contracted a severe cold, which caused him to collapse.

2 WIDOWS, ONE FIANCEE Mourn Death of Man of Mystery

HE LED DOUBLE OR PERHAPS A TRIPLE LIFE

Passed for Claim Agent for Railway and Two Wives Lived on Same Route

CHICAGO, May 28.—At least two widows and a fiancée are mourning the death of Homer E. Morrison, real estate dealer, and the police are working on clues which may lead them to three other women who can claim the man as their late husbands.

Morrison died last Thursday of what may have been poisoning. Two of his wives have complained he took 17-1/2 of his money and a widow who says he promised to marry her admits she gave him $1500.

Mrs. Homer Morrison says she married Morrison three years ago. Mrs. R. W. Thompson says she married the same man under the name of Thompson several years ago; Mrs. Pearl McDivitt asserts Morrison promised to make her his wife next month.

These three women lived on the same car line without knowing the existence of each other. Sometimes Morrison visited all three the same day.

Under the name of Thompson the man posed as a claim adjuster, but for several years kept Mrs. Thompson in ignorance regarding his place of business. To Mrs. Morrison he was a real estate dealer but she never knew where his office was. By day he was manager of a rooming house on Chicago avenue, where he was never seen at night.

The police learned yesterday that Morrison had brought a woman to the rooming house about a year ago. He introduced her as his wife and also spoke to women at the place of their home in Evanston. Evidence indicates he may have left a widow in La Salle, Ill. and another in Barrington, Ill.

Chronic Diseases

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY THE MAGRAW METHOD

"I was troubled for many years with enlargement of the liver, indigestion and asthma and could not get any relief, only a temporary relief by the use of medicines and I tried several times to get cured, but I failed, but not until I tried the Magraw Method. It has cured me of my liver trouble, asthma, indigestion, and I feel like a new man. It is now 11 months since I stopped treating my liver and asthma and I have not had any more trouble. Mr. H. G. B. You can read the original letter at the Lowell office. Consultation, pills, rheumatism, sleeplessness, St. Vitus dance, persistent headache, muscle wasting, obesity, bronchitis, neuritis, asthma, dyspepsia, indigestion and liver troubles and female diseases treated. F. A. Magraw, Doctor of Michigan-Therapy, 97 Central street, room 11. Sundays and Thursdays only, 3 to 5, 7 to 9 p. m. Consultation and advice free. Telephone 673.
